JOBS JOY AS CASH SECURES PROJECT

UP TO 1,850 jobs will be created in Cannock after crucial funding was secured towards a major development scheme in the town.

Site clearance and road construction works can start at a sprawling site in Mill Green, Cannock after the "final piece in the jigsaw" was awarded to make the project possible.

by Mark Mudie

Cannock Chase Council has been awarded £1.78m by the Stoke-on-Trent and Staffordshire Local Enterprise Partnership. It follows an identical grant from the Greater Birmingham and Solihull LEP.

In total 1,200 full-time jobs are expected to be created, as well as 650 construction posts, as the 19-acre site is turned into a business park, plus a hotel, restaurant and nursery.

Sixty-eight construction jobs will be created in the first phase, for infrastructure improvements.

Generate

Council leader George Adamson welcomed the cash injection, as chiefs revealed they expect the business park to generate an estimated £34m of private investment in the district.

"We are determined to do our bit to create jobs in Cannock, and this is brilliant news," he said.

"This is the final piece of the jigsaw and now we can go ahead with getting the land ready to sell on. We want these to be high-quality, skilled jobs in fields such as IT."

He added: "We will put adverts out for tender and it will take a matter of months for us to sign the contracts and work to start.

"We will be looking to sell to a developer next year."

The business park will boast 210,000sq ft of employment space, as well as the leisure and nursery facilities.

Cannock Chase Council corporate director Tony McGovern said: "We're delighted to have received funding from both local enterprise partnerships to develop the Mill Green site into a high quality business park.

"The site has been designated as a major employment location for a number of years and will deliver substantial investment and employment growth when completed."

Aid shop shut for one-day revamp

A CHARITY shop is closing down for a major refurbishment this week – but for one day only.

The International Aid Trust store, on Cannock Road in Chadsmoor, was due to close today (Thursday) before reopening the following day.

It has been redesigned and will be completely renovated and restocked.

All goods on display, including clothing, bric-a-brac and books will then be new stock.

Alison Cardy, area co-ordinator for International Aid Trust, said there would be something for everyone.

"Our ranges include stock for all ages and our friendly staff are always happy to assist," she added.

"Every penny raised helps those in need and supports our work, both in the UK and abroad.

"The income from our shops is vital to enable the work of the Trust to continue so please support us and enjoy a warm welcome."

International Aid Trust also has shops in Heath Hayes, Hednesford and Pelsall.

Drivers are diverted at M6 station

MOTORISTS filling up at Hilton Park Services near Cannock were diverted.

Operators Moto temporarily closed the M6 service station off the northbound carriageway for three hours on Tuesday morning (April 24) after undertaking work to allow a more efficient use of electricity.

It meant drivers using the northbound carriageway, between junctions 10 and 11, were redirected around to the southbound side for fuel via a slip road.

Moto spokesman Andrew Leatham said: "It allows more efficient use of electricity and is a cleaner option."

Zumba fun sessions start

AN HOUR of fun is promised when a new Zumba Gold class for seniors and beginners kicks off next week. Angie Hart is launched the class, which takes place at Avon Business and Leisure Centre, Avon Road, Cannock, on Tuesday (May 1) from 12.30-1.30pm. She already teaches Zumba Gold at St Chad's Church in Chadsmoor every Thursday. Classes cost £4 and will take place weekly. Contact Angie on 07806 280713 for more details.

Work by US artist in frame

A GALLERY in Cannock is playing host to art royalty in the form of hugely popular American artist Todd White.

Artworx, at Cedars Business Park, off Avon Road, currently has several of White's limited pieces on display and the exhibition is proving to be a hit with visitors.

White counts Catherine Zeta Jones and P Diddy among his fans and was in Lichfield last week for a personal appearance at Whitewall Gallery.

The exhibition – Whispered Words & Pretty Lies – focuses exclusively on women.

Debut

Ashley Corrigan, gallery manager at Artworx, said: "Todd made his big debut in the country last year and since then he seems to be quite a hot seller

"He's very popular and his pieces are going down well – we've been getting a great reaction from people coming in."

People are advised that the pieces on display in Artworx are all for sale, so are likely to be available to view for a limited time only.

Artworx is currently looking for local artists to exhibit in the gallery.

Email info@artworx.co.uk for more details or to submit pieces.

Scholars down as Pitmen in play-offs

THERE were contrasting fortunes for Hednesford and Chasetown when the regular non-league season reached its climax last weekend.

A goalless draw at home to Worksop secured Hednesford's place in the Evo-Stick Northern Premier play-offs, where they will play Bradford Park Avenue.

The one-off tie takes place at Bradford's Horsfall Stadium this Saturday (April 28), with the winner facing either Chorley or FC United in the final for a place in the Blue Square north or south divisions next season – two steps away from the Football League.

But for fellow Evo-Stick side Chasetown there was a disastrous end to the campaign when they were relegated following a thrilling 4-4 draw away at bottom side Burscough.

A win for Chasetown, who sacked manager Chris Brindley just two days before the match, would have kept them up but despite coming from 2-0 down to lead 3-2, they couldn't hold on for victory.

Litter picking on Hills

FRIDAY the 13th proved a lucky day for a number of Cannock youngsters.

More than 30 children took part in an organised litter pick on Hednesford Hills, seeking out Easter eggs at the same time that were hidden around the beauty spot.

The event was organised in partnership with Cannock Chase Council and Staffordshire Police and was funded by the Chase Community Safety Partnership. It formed part of a wider initiative – 'Play It Safe' led by Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service, which aimed to tackle anti-social behaviour and reduce arson attacks on Hednesford Hills during the school holidays.

Duncan Rollo, partnerships manager for Cannock Local Policing Team, said: "Activities like these help to prevent anti-social behaviour and other crime related issues across the district."

For more information about the work of the Chase Community Safety Partnership contact Kerry Wright, senior partnerships officer on 01543 464368 or visit www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk/partnerships

Tenants' cash carrot to leave homes for families

COUNCIL chiefs in Cannock have this week unveiled plans to tackle a huge waiting list for homes owned by the local authority.

Leader George Adamson announced a cash incentive scheme which encourages smaller families to move into bungalows. The move would free up larger properties.

Thousands of people are waiting for one of 5,500 council homes in the district. The first council house building scheme for 25 years is set to start early next year but Councillor Adamson said action needed to be taken now.

The Tenant Incentive Scheme will be used to tackle the problem of existing tenants "under-occupying" large homes. Chiefs hope they will move to one and two bedroom bungalows, freeing up bigger properties for families on the waiting list.

Qualifying tenants will be offered up to £1,000, and two weeks rent free at the start of their new tenancy. Up to 70 new council homes will be built on the Moss Road estate in Chadsmoor, with construction due to start early next year.

Incentive

Councillor Adamson said: "We have got a huge waiting list of 3,000 people, and a lot of those are families. We are planning to build some more council houses but they won't be ready for another couple of years.

"If we can encourage people to move into smaller accommodation we would be able to get families into homes."

The council's cabinet has approved the incentive scheme. When the Chadsmoor council house building programme was announced earlier this year, bosses said around 50 homes would be built. Councillor Adamson said an extra £350,000 had been secured to build another 20 properties.

Invitation to former pupils on 150 years

FORMER pupils and staff members are invited to join in a Penkridge school's 150th birthday celebrations.

St Leonard's First School, Dunston is marking the anniversary with a celebration day on Thursday, May 10. A 9.30am service at Dunston Church, with refreshments available, will be followed by a fete at school from 11am with events including maypole dancing planned.

Chairman of governors Howard Stemp said: "We are extending an invitation to all of our former pupils and members of staff to join us and reminisce with the school's current members.

"If you know anyone who has attended our school in the past, please pass on this invitation and all will be made most welcome – light refreshments will be available at both events."

Anyone wishing to attend is asked to let the school know by emailing office@st-leonards-dunston.staffs.sch.uk or by calling 01785 712488.

From noon on May 31 the school is also hosting a Diamond Jubilee street party.

Pub's fundraising music week

Peter Barnes from the Air Ambulance, helper Shirley Hall, Cyclist Sam Samson, helpers Muriel and Mal Thomas, co-organiser Mac Thomas, guitarist Ron and front organiser Jerry Charles with Tia the Rock Dog

A WEEK of music and rock is being held at a Bridgtown pub to raise money for the Midlands Air Ambulance.

The annual rock week at the Stumble Inn, in Walsall Road, starts on Bank Holiday Monday, May 7 and is now its 11th year.

Organiser Jerry Charles, aged 64 of Norton Canes, said he believed over the last few years they had raised around £30,000.

"Last year we were also raising money for the Cannock Stroke Rehabilitation Team and we raised about £1,000 for them."

Mr Charles said they would also be celebrating the hard work of biker Sam Samson who is currently riding from John O'Groats to Land's End unaided.

Bands lined up to appear include Reluctant Heroes, Greenwood Park, The Bravo Boys, Bloke and Cornerstone. Entrance costs £3 or £17 for a week pass.

News on tax given Tory MP's support

BURNTWOOD and Lichfield MP Michael Fabricant has welcomed the news that more than 1,700 people in his constituency will no longer pay income tax.

Mr Fabricant believes the changes announced by his coalition colleagues will help boost the local economy.

The Conservative MP said: "New data just available shows that 1,704 additional residents in Lichfield, Burntwood, and surrounding villages will no longer have to pay any income tax as a result of changes made in the budget and a further 1,236 people will be taken out of tax in 2013.

Increase

"I know that smokers and keen pasty eaters will have to pay more as a result of the budget, but some 31,737 residents in the Lichfield Parliamentary constituency will end up paying less tax and far from suffering from a 'granny tax', pensioners will be receiving more too with an overall increase in their incomes.

"I know that times are tough for many, but I hope that this extra income will help stimulate the local economy of Lichfield and Burntwood."

Rock event aids charity

A ROCK night in Cannock will raise funds for the Multiple Sclerosis Society.

The May 5 event, at Bridgtown Social Club, in Walsall Road, is in aid of the Stephen Martin MS Society Tribute Fund. It starts at 7pm and features five bands and soloists. It has been organised by his widow Hazel, of Great Wyrley.

She said: "My husband lived with MS for 11 years. He passed away in September. I held a similar gig last year where we raised £600. It will also be the day before his 55th birthday."

Tickets are £5. Call 01922 418336 for details.

Manhunt as terms breached

Carl Dowen - wanted

A CANNOCK man is being sought by Staffordshire Police for recall to prison. Carl Dowen, aged 39, is wanted for breaching the terms of his licence.

Dowen was jailed in July 2010 for 27 months for burglary and theft. He was released in October 2011 but has subsequently breached his licence conditions and is also wanted for the theft of two motor vehicles. Police believe Dowen is likely to be in the Cannock area, and has specific links to Bridgtown.

Officers are carrying out extensive inquiries to trace and arrest Dowen and are appealing for assistance from the public. They are also encouraging Dowen to hand himself in.

Anyone who knows of Dowen's whereabouts should contact Cannock police on 101 or call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Appeal over missing dog

A RUGELEY woman has made a heartfelt appeal for residents to help her locate her missing dog.

The two-year-old black, tan and gold Yorkshire terrier, aged two years old, escaped through an open gate at the woman's home on Hagley Road on Friday, April 13, between 9am and 10.30am.

A reward has been offered for the dog's safe return. Anyone with information should call 01889 570239.

Apology on letters sent to young swimmers

A DEBT finance company has been forced to apologise after sending out letters to young swimmers over changes to their direct debit..

Shocked parents complained about the letters sent to 275 swimmers, many of them young children.

One mother, from Hednesford, said: "The letter came headed Debit Finance Collections to my nine-year-old daughter talking about a direct debit from Cannock Chase Council.

"It didn't say it was anything to do with the swimming lessons. I was in a right panic, I thought it was some sort of fraudster using her details and we were going to be in trouble. I rang Debit Finance Collections straight away and they said they had received lots of calls that day."

Milton Keynes-based Debit Finance Collections manages direct debit collections on behalf of Wigan Leisure and Culture Trust (WLCT), which now runs leisure facilities for Cannock Chase Council.

Letters were sent out explaining how debit payments would now be under the name of their company rather than the council.But some households were shocked to receive the letters addressed to children themselves. The letter, from Debit Finance Collections and addressed to swimmers, reads: "We are pleased to advise you that Cannock Chase Council will be outsourcing their Direct Debit Membership collection facility to Debit Finance Collections Plc.

"This change will not affect the service you receive in any way, except that Direct Debits will be collected by Debit Finance Collections Plc instead of the collection coming from Cannock Chase District Council, with effect from May 1.

"The only change you will notice will be the different name on your bank or building society statement for this Direct Debit. You are not required to take any action, details of the change have been supplied to your bank or building society."

Ivan Stevenson, a director at Debit Finance Collections, said the company apologised for the error after 275 letters were sent out to swimmers in Rugeley.

The letters would now be sent correctly addressed to parents or guardians, he added.

"That was in error – an administration error" he said.

"We manage the direct debit for Wigan Leisure and Culture Trust. We will be sending letters out with the correct name and the company has apologised," he said.

Precinct tidy-up to entice new shoppers and tenants

A GREAT Wyrley shopping precinct is to be spruced up to attract new tenants and shoppers. MP Gavin Williamson said he had secured a commitment to tidying up the complex

The South Staffordshire MP met with Dresler Smith, the owners of the Quinton Court shopping centre in Wardles Lane – originally built in the 1960s – last Friday (April 20).

He said the precinct needed to be brought up to date to encourage more retailers to move in to the half a dozen vacant units.

The Tory MP said: "It was very positive, myself and other councillors emphasised the poor state of the area and we have received a commitment to have a look at it.

"We want the problem to be fixed before the Olympic Torch passes through Great Wyrley.

"There have been several owners over the years and not a lot of money has been spent on it.

Choice

"Some of the hoarding needs replacing and general improvements need to be made to smarten up the site."

Mr Williamson said he wanted to see a wider choice of retailers on the site, which currently includes a salon, pharmacy and supermarket.

"It has a lot going for it, there is free car parking and a wide range of retailers.

"There are a lot of things about it which could be improved with a minimal cost," he added.

Take-over secures a new job

A CANNOCK labelling firm has bought a Kent business that supplies plastic and metal security seals, asset labels and tamper evident bags.

Security Labels International, Watling Street, already makes security devices used by the police and security businesses.

Managing director Adrian Steele said the purchase of Geoffrey Waldmeyer Associates would enable the business to build to meet customer expectations.

The value of the deal has not been disclosed but it means one extra member of staff will be taken on at Cannock.

Security Labels, formed in 2007, is part of the Mercian Labels group which started in 1969 in Penkridge.

Plea on crafts stall

BURNTWOOD Town Council is looking for local people to display and sell good quality goods in the craft fair marquee at the Burntwood Wakes. It is one of the attractions in the family fun day at Burntwood Rugby Club on July 21 from noon until 4.30pm.

Each stall pitch is £15. Call Mary Danby or Julie Bayley on 01543 677166.

Des the horse, with traders association chair Chris Green, nursery nurse Anita Malpass and Chase View Primary School pupils, celebrating St George's Day

Flying the flag for St George

ST GEORGE rode a white horse through Rugeley to celebrate St George's Day.

Residents, schoolchildren and traders marked the occasion on Monday (April 23).

Shops were decorated with bunting and regalia, and local pupils decorated shields which were displayed in the town centre.

Angi Cooney, of the Rugeley Traders Association, said: "We are delighted to be able to showcase St George in all his regalia."

Kitty Leech, from Community Engagement Support Services, who went into the schools to help the children create the shields, said: "We are extremely happy with how the school communities pulled together, and we would like to thank Dorothy Bradbury and the team from the Landor Society who judged the shields."

Hob Hill School, in Armitage Lane, picked up the prize for the best shield, and Western Springs and St Joseph's came second and third respectively.

Traders in the town are looking to celebrate May Day and want people to join in with the festivities.

The traders are also planning to run a market in the middle of town on June 5 from 9am to 4pm.

To get involved, call 07866 610894.

His boss was Tony Blair. Is this the beginning of a process which will finally bring Blair to account? Or will it once again be impossible to make any mud stick to "Teflon Tone"?

IN THE days when the Olympic Games were about more than turning athletes into advertising placards, there were categories to find the world's best writers, poets, sculptors and even town planners. This reflected the belief that mankind may excel in more things than running, jumping or beach volleyball.

There are hints that the London Olympics this summer may feature some innovative events. After the 2011 riots, the St Paul's tent city and the Boat Race disruption, it is reckoned that Britain now has some of the most successful protesters in the world. Activists are threatening to block the traffic lanes reserved for sponsors and VIPs. They boast of making the Games "unworkable." Freestyle urban disruption: I bet it's a damn sight more interesting than the dressage.

A QUARTER of motorists aged 17 to 24 admit using smartphones to read emails or use social-networking sites while driving, according to RAC figures. This proves that many smartphones are considerably smarter than their owners. Driving with a smartphone is like having a copper's nark in the passenger seat.

The moment the police stop you and pick up your phone it will grass you up, telling them where and when you used the phone, who you called and how long you were online. Smartphones may be smart but they are not loyal.

THERE was a wonderful moment in Twenty-Twelve (BBC2) when Graham, Head of Infrastructure (Karl Theobald) is explaining the average time spent by athletes in urinals to Nick, Head of Contracts (Vincent Franklin) and informs him that "tinkle time" is a recognised term in the sanitary world. "I'm not from the sanitary world," growls Nick. "I'm from Yorkshire."

Reduced service on buses announced

FEWER buses will run between Cannock and Lichfield in a shake-up of services.

Arriva is to operate a reduced number of route 60 departures from April 29, only weeks after scrapping the express X60 route.

Early morning commuters are likely to be hit hardest, with the 7.15am and 8.15am departures from Cannock among those to go. The 60 service calls at East Cannock, Cross Keys, Heath Hayes, Norton Canes, Chase Terrace, Chasetown, Burntwood, Pipe Hill and Darwin Park.

Withdrawn

The changes will hit commuters travelling in the opposite direction with Arriva announcing the 8.10am and 8.50 am Monday to Friday departures from Lichfield to Cannock are being withdrawn.

For workers heading home, the 5pm Monday to Friday departure from Lichfield will now depart at 4.50pm while the 5.40pm from Lichfield to Cannock will run on Saturday only.

The Monday to Friday 6.20pm service from Lichfield to Cannock has been put back by 10 minutes, while the 6.40pm from Lichfield has been axed during the week.

Two buses, which leave Lichfield at 7.20pm and 7.40pm Monday to Friday, will be replaced by a single service at 7.30pm.

Arriva Midlands communications manager Keith Myatt said: "Recent monitoring has highlighted the need to make minor changes to service 60.

"Service 60 continues to run up to every 30 minutes daytime Monday to Saturday – there are evening and Sunday buses too with an additional Sunday buses on service 33A."

Big names planned at car park retail complex

COUNCIL bosses want to attract "aspirational" retailers to a shopping complex on a Cannock car park with Marks & Spencer, Debenhams and Next lined up.

The district council has agreed to inform developers about the potential of the 200-space Beecroft Road car park.

The main option for the site is large, modern stores built around a central public area.

Up to 150,000 sq ft of retail-leisure space would be created over a number of floors. The adjacent subway would also be enhanced to improve links to the town centre.

The authority's economic development boss Councillor Gordon Alcott said: "This is something we urgently need to do.

"Investing in Cannock town centre is one of our main priorities.

"We face stiff competition from Lichfield, Stafford and Walsall and we want to get our town centre up and running.

"This is not an easy thing to do but it is a priority," he added.

Needed

Cannock Chase Council is hoping to lure big names to the site by offering much larger stores than currently exist in the town centre. Compulsory purchase orders would be used to acquire any surrounding land needed for the larger shops.

Town centre regeneration chief Councillor Diane Todd said: "We want these bigger names to come in, and we have to look at developing this site to achieve that."

The council-owned car park brings in £300,000 a year. Some parking would be retained at the site.

The council will use a site report approved at last night's cabinet meeting to carry out market research and test the water with potential developers.

Rehearsal ahead of Mysteries

PRIMARY school in children in Gentleshaw are set to perform in the Lichfield Mysteries – and the youngsters put on a dress rehearsal for classmates.

Their interpretation of The Entry into Jerusalem received a big thumbs-up from children and staff at the school in Darlings Lane.

Headteacher Sue Winson said it was an 'outstanding' performance, adding: "All of the children spoke with meaning and loved performing."

The youngsters sing and dance their way through the production, which is the Palm Sunday story told with a modern twist.

Proud

They even put the play together themselves with the help of director and teacher Hannah Lea. She said: "I am really proud of all of the children."

The group has made all the costumes and some of the props, worked out the music and choreographed the dance routines.

They will be one of 24 groups performing in the Lichfield Mysteries on the Bank Holiday weekend of May 6 and 7 in Market Square and in the Cathedral.

Village hall's Royal knees-up

Party hosts Sandra Chambers, Anne O'Brien and Christine McGhee

PENSIONERS in Penkridge enjoyed a pre-Diamond Jubilee party on the day of the Queen's birthday.

A total of 90 people were treated to a meal of traditional roast beef and vegetables and entertainment from the Chase Harmony group.

The Peace Memorial Hall in Pinfold Lane was a sea of red, white and blue as it was decorated with Union flags, balloons and pictures of the Queen. The event, on Saturday (April 21), was themed around the jubilee and was organised by the village's Senior Citizens' Welfare Committee. It secured funds and help from the likes of the Rotary Club and St John Ambulance to host the day.

Everyone was given a commemorative leather coaster, while Penkridge Flower Club provided table decorations.

Bill Westwood, aged 81, of Grosvenor Close, Penkridge, said: "It is the collection of people that are here that makes it."

Accident verdict after fall at home

A RETIRED deck hand from Cannock Wood died after he fell at his home, an inquest heard.

Samuel Perry, aged 92, was found by his son lying on his living room floor at his home on Cumberledge Hill, the inquest at Smethwick coroners court heard.

Mr Perry's son had seen him the evening of April 16, but when he tried to call the next morning there was no answer and he went around to his father's home.

Deputy Black Country Coroner Andrew Thompson said: "He was found dressed in just his night clothes and the heating was off."

Treatment

Mr Perry, a widower, was taken to New Cross Hospital where they found him to have a very low body temperature.

Mr Thompson said: "Despite the treatment given Mr Perry died at 12.30pm the same day."

He said the cause of death was a cardiac arrest.

Recording a verdict of accidental death, the coroner said: "I am satisfied Mr Perry fell in his home at some time after his son had seen him on April 16.

"Due to the fact the heating was off, he developed hypothermia which caused his death."

Cheerleaders at spring fair

A SPRING fair with a diamond jubilee theme will be held at a Burntwood church hall next month.

The event at St Johns Community Church, High Street, Chase Terrace, will include gifts, cards, bags, jewellery, wooden and other craft items, books, toys and nearly new clothes.

Entertainment at the event on May 19, between noon and 3pm, will come from Lucy's cheerleaders, Little Singers and a Zumba demonstration.

Folk club dates

PHIL Drane and The Staffordshire Men are among next month's acts at Chase Folk Club. Drane will perform on Friday, May 11 with the Staffordshire Men playing at the Victoria Club, in Ironstone Road, Chase Terrace, on May 25. May 4 and 18 will be singer's night. Call Barry on 07854 772238.

Sale agreed as carpet stores shut

TWO former Allied Carpets sites in Cannock have closed ahead of the sale of the company in an administration deal.

Administrators were appointed for the business for the third time in as many years last Friday (April 20).

The sites in Wyrley Brook Park and Voyager Drive shut ahead of the administration.

Buyers General George, part of the Floors-2-Go Group, have bought nine of the 20 remaining shops.

Administrators Duff and Phelps said immediately following its appointment that a sale of parent company Allied Floors and certain assets of the company was completed to General George.

Operation

Joint administrator Geoff Bouchier said: "We are pleased to have completed a going concern sale of the business which has resulted in the continued operation of nine stores and saved 41 jobs."

In the weeks leading up to the administration, Allied Carpets had closed five stores including Cannock.

A separate company, Home Flooring Solutions – an insurance business run by former Allied boss Clive Hutchings – is dealing with customer queries at the closed stores.

Gold stolen from in-law

A MAN stole £580 worth of gold jewellery from his brother-in-law's house, a court has heard.

Richard West, from Cannock, was helping Jonathan Capewell clean the house in Huntington as it was up for sale. The offence took place on October 19 last year.

The 28-year-old, of Walsall Road, pleaded guilty to a theft. He was ordered to do a 12 month community order, to pay £300 costs and compensation of £310.

Ms Lorraine Anson, prosecuting, read out a witness statement from Mr Capewell, which said: "For him to do this was a huge shock."

Neil Gerrity, defending, said: "He clearly was not thinking straight."

Evening of pop

A POP and rock night is being held at Cheslyn Hay village hall next month. It starts at 7.30pm on Saturday, May 12, in Pinfold Lane. Tickets priced £7 or £5 concessions are available on 01922 410483.

Pitmen fans and staff dig deep for hospital unit

The cheque for £800 is handed over to Stafford Hospital's chemotherapy unit

HEDNESFORD Town Football Club and its Supporters Association have handed over £800 to Stafford Hospital's chemotherapy unit.

Club secretary Terry McMahon, supporters Ian and Sue Pitt and stadium safety manager Dave Smith visited the unit to personally present the cheque to nurses.

The cash was raised through a bucket collection at a home game against FC United of Manchester, a Supporters Association quiz night and donations from family and friends of Sue Pitt and Graham Watkinson, director at Chorley FC.

Mr Pitt, whose wife is currently undergoing treatment at the unit, said he was delighted at the sum raised and expressed his thanks to those involved in the collection.The nurses at the unit work incredibly hard and have always done their very best to treat Sue with the utmost respect and the care she has received has been superb.

Worthy

"I would like to thank the nurses for collecting at the FC United game, Keith Harley for organising the Supporters Association quiz and all those people who donated to such a worthy cause.'

Mr McMahon said: "It's a great feeling and a real honour to be able to donate the money towards the unit which will no doubt assist the nurses and all involved to continue offering the service."

Victim's family criticises jail term on death crash

A CHESLYN Hay father-of-one is behind bars after his speeding van was involved in a crash which left another man dead.

Luke Lee, aged 20, was sentenced to a nine month prison term which was criticised as too lenient by relatives of Barry Carding. The 71-year-old grandfather died instantly in the smash on May 11 last year.

Coventry crown court heard Lee's Vauxhall Vivaro was travelling at a speed of at least 47mph in a 30mph zone when it crashed into Mr Carding's Ford Fiesta.

At a previous hear-ing Lee, of Hospital Lane, pleaded guilty to causing death by careless driving.

Prosecutor Neil Bannister said that before the fatal crash at 9.20am, Mr Carding had driven his granddaughter to school and collected a friend to go fishing.

Mr Carding, from Bedworth, was performing a U-turn in Aldermans Green Road, Coventry, when Lee approached.

Mr Bannister said Lee had ignored road signs warning of speed restrictions.

Banned

Lee told police he had been listening to a CD and did not know the road was a 30mph zone but did not think he was speeding.

Mark Jones, defending, said Lee – who has a seven-month-old child – deserved a suspended sentence.

Lee was also banned him from driving for three years.

Mr Carding's family said they were disappointed at the length of Lee's sentence.

In a statement they said: "We are disappointed that Luke Lee is only going to prison for nine months.

"He has a seven-month-old child who he will see. We will never see our husband or dad again."

Plea as woman missing

POLICE in Cannock have issued an urgent appeal over a missing woman from the town.

Joanna Evans, aged 40, disappeared from her home on Saturday (April 21) at around 1pm. She has learning difficulties and has no money or means of contact.

She was last seen wearing a blue three-quarter length jacket, blue jeans, a scarf, dangly earrings and a white duffel bag with black spots. She has stained brown teeth which are broken at the front.

Pc Emily Lennox, from Cannock Chase Local Policing Team, said: "Joanna is particularly vulnerable and her family are desperate to know that she is safe and well.

"Joanna should know that she is not in any trouble and does not have to return home if she doesn't want to - we just need to know that she is safe."

Ready for the Cruse bereavement care coffee morning at Halliwell funeral services are left , Rosie Stanton, Kim Lloyd, Jan Hollies, Donna Thompson and Bill Galvin

Bereaved offered support sessions

A BEREAVEMENT service has teamed with a funeral directors to run support sessions in Heath Hayes.

Cruse Bereavement Care and Halliwell Funeral Services are launching the weekly coffee mornings from Thursday, May 3.

They will run every Thursday for six weeks and could continue on a permanent basis if they prove popular.

Staff say they want to help grieving relatives or friends come to terms with their loss.

The one-hour sessions will be held from 11am at Halliwell's in Hednesford Road. Deputy general manager Bill Galvin said: "We are offering this to anyone who may have been in touch with Cruse and thinks it might be beneficial.

He said: "The aim is just to get people together so they can have a coffee and chat as a group, or even one-to-one, with someone who can listen to them or feels the same way.

"I have an interest in the area and it's very dear to me. I'm quite keen on this happening."

For more information call Halliwell's on 01543 459200.

Chasewater dam work comes to end at last

THE MAJOR £5.5 million engineering project at Chasewater reservoir has now been officially completed. The county council took over the project in May 20120.

By Harry Gottschalk

The 200-year-old dam at the heart of Chasewater Country Park was drained in early 2010 amid concerns for the safety of the reservoir which dates back to 1797.

The project had been started by Lichfield District Council but proved a bigger challenge than anticipated.

From last October water levels slowly started to rise once more.

The last major milestone has now taken place with 100 tons of concrete pumped into the dam to create a weir, which will control the flow of water when the reservoir is full.

Vital

County Councillor Mark Winnington, cabinet member for environment and assets, said: "Chasewater is one of the Midlands' most popular beauty spots so it was absolutely vital that the safety improvements were carried out.

"The site is now returning to its former glory. We appreciate the impact this work has had on people who use the reservoir for activities from sailing to angling and wildlife spotting.

"The team has improved the overflow to safeguard nearby residents in the event of severe flooding, which will enable us to monitor the condition of the dam much more closely in the future.

"The drawdown culvert – the equivalent of the plughole in a bath – was located and inspected for the first time in over 200 years."

The reservoir's original role was to regulate water in the Midlands canal network and water would be taken from it in times of drought.

Ex-players quizzed

THREE former Wolves players made an appearance at a fundraiser at Hednesford Town FC. Steve Daley, Kenny Hibbitt and Matt Murray attended the night in aid of Wolverhampton's Compton Hopsice.

The trio were quizzed about their careers in a question and answer session at Keys Park. Daley also gave a talk, while a raffle and auction was also held.

Organiser Matt Flint, director of Cannock-based Company Networking Ltd, said around 40 to 50 people turned up

Passers-by helped stop cigarette fraud transfer

MORE than 500,000 contraband cigarettes and 150kg of tobacco were found in a shipping container in Cannock, a court heard.

The goods had been smuggled into the UK from the Canary Islands Two men were caught red-handed unloading Domingo and Gold Classic Spanish cigarettes and tobacco.

Wolverhampton Crown Court heard how the container had been "hijacked" by smugglers and sent to an address in Cannock.

As the lorry carrying it from Felixstowe docks arrived, Lee Field flagged it down and directed to a service road off Walsall Road, where he and Peter Ankrett started transferring the goods. Passers-by went to investigate – "spooking" the men who fled, Mr Michael Taylor, prosecuting, said.

Unload

Revenue and Customs officers had been watching the load, which had evaded £262,545 VAT duty and arrested both men just a few hundred yards away on May 25.

Market trader Field, aged 34, owed £4,000 to criminals who brought him in to unload the goods to pay off the debt. He recruited Ankrett, who was to be paid £250.

Mr Stephen Cadwaladr, defending, said: "They were just hired labourers in this enterprise. Field caved into pressure after coming into contact with proper villains."

Field, of Fair Oaks Drive, Great Wyrley, and Ankrett, of Water Reed Grove, Walsall, admitted evading of duty. Field was jailed for 18 months. Ankrett, 44, was given a 12-month community order with 150 hours unpaid work and £150 costs.

Gwen's Royal invitation

Gwen Willetts has been invited to a Buckingham Palace garden party

A HEDNESFORD grandmother has been invited a Queen's garden party at Buckingham Palace after being recognised for her voluntary work.

Gwen Willetts, aged 62, of Alpine Drive, plans to take her daughter Alison along next month. Gwen worked carried out voluntary work at Cannock magistrates court, Cannock Hospital and Featherstone Prison for more than five years.

This came after she joined the WRVS and was also a charity worker in the prison's visitor centre.

Walk in woodland

THE Friends of Cannock Chase are embarking on a wildflower walk through ancient woodland on Thursday, May 10. They are meeting at Piggotts Bottom, Horsey Lane, Upper Longdon at 2.30pm for the two to three-mile trek.

Info plea on former owner of old motor

TO readers and particularly those in the Penkridge area. I purchased a 1953 Land Rover, registration DEP 636 in late 2009. I am currently in process of complete restoration, ultimately for my own future pleasure use.

The original owner was a Mr John Clarke who I understand sadly died in the early 90s and lived in 'The Old Deanery' in Penkridge.

I am seeking any information that can help build up a history of the vehicle along with its owner. It would appear he ran and cherished this vehicle for the majority of its life until his untimely death. I think it adds to the provenance of a vehicle when its history and past is known and would be special to me. Any information will be much appreciated.

TLC needed to make town sparkle

I READ in The Chronicle that Tesco was to be the heart of Hednesford – I don't believe this to be the case.

It's a beautiful little town, it just needs a little tlc. There are some pretty original features that remain unchanged from years gone by. This is the heart of Hednesford.

However, Tesco will be a useful addition to attract more people to the town. It also creates more jobs which is always wonderful. I don't believe we need to throw money at Hednesford to turn it into anything that its not. It is a traditional town that once was vibrant, bustling and abundant. My taste is not so expensive, style is free and a little bit of effort is all it takes.

It would be a welcome addition to Hednesford if the local council would contribute a little money to some of the shopkeepers to upgrade their shops a little to make it a place that is truly abundant with the new people that will be visiting while they are also shopping at Tesco. It wouldn't cost very much and some of the shops are real little success stories each in their own right.

I have a picture of how Hednesford used to look. Surely we can look at this and remember how things should be?

We still have time to upgrade our town. With a little good taste, a little style and a community spirit we can help to make it sparkle again.

Not all doom and gloom on churches

THE article on churches (Chronicle, April 12) was interesting but contained nothing new.

May I suggest a visits to the church by junction 10 in Walsall, then to the parish church in Aldridge, then maybe St John's Methodist Church and All Saints Parish Church both in Bloxwich.

It's not all doom and gloom, a position she took recently, but don't be so insular, gather your experience from far and wide, lest you fall at the first fence!

Obviously there are problems generally but none that cannot be resolved by good leadership and general amicability for all.

Society at the moment is ailing and needs positive support from many areas including strong leadership and directive resolve to which it will respond.

Cost of tyre slashing

MY condolences to the people of Cheslyn Hay who had tyres slashed – this happened to my cars twice within a week at the same time of day. I know how expensive this can be.

My congratulations, however, on getting the police involved. We were visited by a pretend bobby, who interviewed us and took a vague interest but there was no evidence the following week of a patrol. Presumably it isn't a crime. To pass on his advice, one should consider getting older, less desirable cars as it reduces envy!

NAME AND ADDRESS SUPPLIED

Reasons why fees went up?

WE hear it is to cost £13,000 to upgrade the parking ticket machines in Cannock Council car parks

Maybe that's why the ruling Labour Group put up parking charges across the district in their last budget. I hope our local traders don't suffer!

Ticket machines on all of Cannock Chase Council's car parks have been upgraded just so they can accept new 5p and 10p coins.

The adapted machines were said to be needed because the old ones identified each coin by its weight and would not recognise the new 5p and 10p coins.

It has cost the council £13,000 to adapt the 20 machines.

Let's hope this is not the thin end of the wedge on the district's parking by the Labour group and that we don't see charges introduced in Hednesford.

I would fight any such move.

Stadium gone, so no Olympic legacy

I WATCHED Midlands Today where they had an item about the Olympic teams that are coming to the Midlands.

It's great that the Pakistan hockey team will be coming to Cannock Hockey Club but I was incensed when I saw one of our local Conservative councillors saying how good this was and the presenter talked about our Olympic legacy.

What legacy do we have in Cannock Chase? Nothing.

The Conservative/Lib Dem coalition demolished our athletics stadium and didn't even apply for the Olympic Torch to pass through our district.

Think what might have been if they had invested in and improved the stadium instead of committing one of the worst acts of vandalism in our area's history.

Survey on uses and folklore of wild plants

I AM conducting a survey of the folklore and uses of wild plants so I would be pleased to hear of any memories which readers might have.

Were you ever told not to bring certain flowers indoors? Do you remember any local plant names? Did you ever play games with wild plants or use any herbal remedies.

If you did, please contact me, either at my home address or at vickery330@btinternet.com

Old Fashioned Values Pay Dividends For Cloudy2Clear

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Brian Stanley feels that his approach is the key. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Some people may call the way I do things a little old-fashioned but it's amazing how a simple mix of manners, punctuality and personal service increases your business. I'm constantly taken aback by customers who are shocked that we turn up when we say we will, do the job that is required and clean up after ourselves. I'm afraid it indicates to me that there are many companies who don't and that's just not fair to the customer.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Walsall, Wolverhampton, Dudley, Cannock, Bridgnorth & Stourbridge areas and Brian is finding that his ethos is proving to be a major factor in his success. 'When I started out I just did the things that came naturally to me. I really hate being let down by tradesmen so I was determined not to let that happen to my customers. As it turns out that little bit of extra care has meant I get friends and family of people I have done work for on the phone constantly so it's not just personally satisfying but good for business too. At the end of the day it's not rocket science, is it?'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Brian a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Head reveals pride over Ofsted's praise of school

Pupils embrace motto

Back left, Sara Willetts, Reece Jones, aged five, Jaime Thompson, five; Front , Abigail Kerr, five, and George Deakin, four PUPILS in Great Wyrley embraced the motto of their school as they went green for the day.

Moat Hall Primary's motto is 'We look after our environment' and staff organised a non-uniform day to mark Earth Day. All 435 youngsters from the Johns Lane dressed in green.

School environmental co-ordinator Miranda Moore said: "Earth Day reminded the children about what we do already and gave them more things to think about."

A HEADTEACHER has spoken of her pride at her Cannock school receiving a much-improved Ofsted report.

Longford Primary was praised for its leadership, management and ambition when it picked up a 'good' rating, a step up from the 'satisfactory' one given in 2009.

Headteacher Emma Stote said the whole school richly deserved the grading.

"We have always known we are good, but it is great that we have now received this recognition from Ofsted.

"I am very proud of what we have all achieved at Longford. We have been focused and determined to ensure that all students succeed in what they aspire to."

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley recently paid a visit to the school, taking in a question and answer session and being given in insight into some Year 5 lessons.

Capacity

He said: "It's a real record of how quickly a school can move forward if everyone is committed to it.

"There is still a long way to go before they reach the goal of being outstanding, but this Ofsted report proves that they have the will and the capacity and the drive to continue improving."

Stephen Mate, chairman of governors at the Ascot Drive school, said Mrs Stote had built a strong team of teachers and support staff. He said: "Relationships are very positive. Staff, pupils, parents and carers and the governing body are fully involved and focused on driving through further improvement."

Councillor holds surgery

A COUNTY councillor is holding an advice surgery for residents in Burntwood on Saturday (April 28). Councillor Paul Atkins will be at Burntwood Library, Sankeys Corner, from 10.30 to 11.30am.

Britain's smallest park, adjacent to Christ Church in Burntwood, commemorates the Royal Wedding of 1863

The houses opposite the church were known as 'Fairfield' and were built for the nursing staff at St Matthews

Smallest park home to Faith, Hope and Charity

Christ Church in Burntwood before lych gates were erected

The church after the erection of the lych gates in 1931

THE smallest park in Britain is situated adjacent to Christ Church in Burntwood.

The park commemorates the marriage of Queen Victoria's eldest son Prince Albert Edward, the Prince of Wales, to Princess Alexandra of Denmark in 1863. Queen Victoria was still mourning the death of her husband Prince Albert.

Quite who commissioned the park is unknown. The three trees located there are named Faith, Hope and Charity. The church next to the park was built in 1819/1820 on land given by Sir Robert Peel. One of the photos shows it when there was no lych gate. Another shows the lych gate after it was erected in 1931 in memory of the Rev Weston who died in 1929.

MEMORY LANE

by Ron Bradbury

He had been the vicar from 1886 to 1922. On one of the photos he is seen standing in the pulpit, which looks quite spooky with the light streaming through the window onto his white hair and long-flowing beard.

The houses opposite the church were built for staff at the St Matthews Hospital, which can be seen in the background, and are known as Fairfields.

The children on the photo are most likely coming out of Sunday School just up the road.

The school building was originally the Elizabeth Ball Charity School which was started by a Burntwood landowner who lived at Castle Bromwich.

The charity still exists and funds are donated to local causes involving children. The local Lords of the Manor were the Worthingtons of Maple Hayes, the famous brewing family of Burton-upon-Trent.

The cock in the tower was put in by the family in 1921 in memory of Sarah Worthington who died in 1913.

Child abduction ordeal told by dad in new book

Sean Felton, from Norton Canes, with his book, Scared of the Dark

A FATHER who travelled across the world to find his abducted son has signed copies of the book he wrote recording his ordeal.

Sean Felton journeyed to Thailand from his home in Norton Canes to reach three-year-old Jobe, who was snatched by his estranged wife.

Scared of the Dark went on sale last month and Mr Felton, 40, has embarked on a number of book signings to promote his story.

Mr Felton, a painter and decorator, posed as a rich American on Facebook, in order to trick his wife into handing over their son and then travelled 6,000 miles to the remote village of Chiang Rai to find her.

"He was in a terrible mess when I found him" said Mr Felton of his son.

"He couldn't speak, his teeth were broken, he had permanent bruises down his back and his thumbnails had been ripped out."

Crazy

Signing copies of his book at Waterstones in Walsall, he said: "It's been a brilliant day. I've personally sold at least 20 copies and staff have sold more.

"The manager has asked me to come back to give a talk about my experience and he is talking to other branches as well.

"It's gone crazy," Mr Felton added. "I've even had people knocking on my door asking me to sign their copies of the book."

Scared of the Dark, which is £7.99, is available online and at book shops.

Organist Jean to head free Jubilee celebration

BRITAIN'S Got Talent finalist Jean Martyn will open a free day of music and fun to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

Cannock Lions, the Rotary Club and Soroptimists have all combined to put on the event in Cannock town centre on Saturday, June 2.

A mix of live and recorded music will be played from the bandstand next to the bowling green from noon to 6.30pm, kicked off by the organist, who will perform until 12.30pm.

At 6pm Robert Fellows will lead a 'Last night of the Proms' type sing-a-long with other musical entertainment lined up for the time in between. There will be a slide show with pictures of Cannock from 1952 to present day. There will also be entertainment in the space near the clock.

To take part contact Doug Smith on 07771 915020 or e-mail president-cannocklions@hotmail.co.uk

Loyalty rewarded

Maureen Hall, Beryl Taylor, organiser Zaphne Stretton, Margaret Edwards and, front, Margaret Turner

FOUR members of a village club have been rewarded after clocking up 98 years of service between them.

The quartet were rewarded with flowers and service medals for their loyalty to the Norton Canes WRVS Darby & Joan Club.

The long-serving members were Maureen Hall, aged 76, who has notched up 35 years, Margaret Edwards, aged 81, who is retiring after 33 and Beryl Taylor, 80, and Margaret Turner, 73, who have both been attending meetings for 15 years.

Members meet every Wednesday afternoon at Norton Canes community centre in Brownhills Road. This week they were also celebrating Beryl's 80th birthday.

Members have guest speakers, sing-songs and play bingo. The club has 80 members but would welcome newcomers. For more information, call Zaphne Stretton on 07899 905779.

Shrink in jobless figures welcomed

CANNOCK'S Chamber of Commerce has welcomed new figures that show more people are finding jobs in Staffordshire.

New figures have revealed the first fall in the UK's unemployment rate in almost a year. Across Staffordshire, the number of jobseeker's allowance claimants has dropped.

The biggest fall was in Cannock, down 112 to 2,429, or 3.9 per cent of the district's working population. The national average rate is 4.9 per cent.

by Harry Gottschalk

Decline

John Lamb, spokesman for Cannock Chase Chamber of Commerce, said: "I think any town or city that has experienced a drop in unemployment will welcome the news.

"It has been a long decline, the unemployment figures looked high in January and February, but they have come down now."

The news was also welcomed by the leader of Cannock Chase Council, George Adamson.

Councillor Adamson said: "That's great news, but I would like to know how many of the people are now working in part-time jobs.

"Because of changes to tax credits some people in part-time jobs could be worse off now than before,"he added.

Shoplift charge admitted

A 40-YEAR-OLD man has pleaded guilty to stealing £12 worth of products from Boots in Cannock.

Andrew Chambers, of Wimblebury Road, Heath Hayes, pleaded guilty at Cannock magistrates court to the theft in April. He took two tubes of coldsore cream, the court heard.

Neil Gerrity, defending, said: "He found himself in financial hardship."

Chambers was fined £100, with £85 costs.

VOTERS go to the polls in Cannock Chase next week with the ruling Labour party seeking to capitalise on government cuts to police budgets, citing a rise in domestic burglary compared with this time last year.

Opposition Conservatives will seek to defend the Government but also pledge to offer value for money.

There will be 14 seats across 13 different wards up for election on May 3 including two councillors in the Hagley ward.

The Conservatives currently have 13 seats while Labour has 17. There are two Liberal councillors and nine Liberal Democrats. Four of the ones up for election are held by Labour, four are Conservative, four are Liberal Democrat and two are Liberal.

Council leader George Adamson said key areas for Labour included planning, crime and anti-social behaviour, and a continued focus on the redevelopment of Hednesford Town Centre.

"We intend to protect the green belt" he said.

Increase

Referring to the latest crime statistics, he said: "We've had figures showing an increase in crime in some areas. "There has been a 69 per cent increase in Norton Canes in domestic burglary from 12 months ago and an 103 per cent increase in domestic burglary in Brereton and Hagley. Part of this is due to cuts in the police."

Conservative leader Councillor Mike Sutherland said: "We want to focus on people getting value for money, we have already had great savings created by using shared services, we want to make sure the current administration don't lose any momentum going forward.

"We also want to make sure that council tax doesn't go up."

Councillor Danny Davies, who leads the Liberal Democrats, said his parties three m,ain priorities would be keeping down council tax; reducing unemployment and revitalising the area's town centres.

The Chase Independent Party
Local Resident Putting The People First

We would be honoured to represent Hednesford and its residents. We are independent of any party politics or dogma.

Having lived in Hednesford all our married lives (36 years), we are both totally committed to Hednesford and its residents as our past record of over 10 years as councillors will show.

We have campaigned tirelessly on your behalf on may issues - phone mast, street policing, planning issues, anti social behaviour, our green spaces - Pye Green Valley, and very many more.

We have always championed the regeneration of our Hednesford town centre.

These elections will only tackle local issues and will have no impact on national issues, such as taxes, NHS, petrol prices, businesses, etc., as all the political parties would like you to believe. Do not be conned.

Please do not waste your vote.

Woman faces court over assisting offender charge

A WOMAN from Rugeley charged with assisting an offender is to have her case heard at crown court.

Adele Marklew entered no plea when she appeared at Cannock magistrates court on Monday (April 23).

She is charged with assisting an offender between April 8 and April 10, giving shelter and food to Terry Hollis, who committed the offence of burglary.

The 21-year-old of Lovett Court, Rugeley was given unconditional bail and will appear at Stafford Crown Court next Monday, April 30.

No appeal by Biffa on refusal of incinerator

CHASE MP Aidan Burley is celebrating the refusal of planning permission for an incinerator to be built near homes in Cannock.

The Conservative MP welcomed news that Biffa Ltd will not appeal against a planning decision to refuse permission for a huge new incinerator in the town.

The application, which was refused last year after some controversy, would have seen Biffa construct a waste incinerator on land adjacent to the Kingswood Lakeside/Poplars landfill and recycling depot.

The time limit for appealing against the decision to the national Planning Inspectorate has now passed and Mr Burley, a leading opponent of the incinerator plans, confirmed the waste company would not now be doing so.

Having initially voted narrowly in favour of the incinerator, Staffordshire County Council was forced into a fresh hearing for the application.

Delighted

The council ruled that the company's offer of a 'community fund' for local projects was not closely related to the development, and could not be taken into consideration by planners.

Mr Burley said: "I am delighted that all the hard work put in by myself and local councillors, especially John Bernard and Pat Corfield has resulted in this outcome.

"A new incinerator would have worsened air quality problems in neighbourhoods already blighted by the busy A5 and M6 Toll corridor. It would have sent out the wrong message that burning more waste is okay, and burning it on our doorstep is acceptable."

E-fit image released of bogus caller

An e-fit of the offender

AN E-FIT of a man who pretended to be from the water board to get into a pensioner's home in Burntwood has been released.

The bogus official targeted a 91-year-old woman at her home in Church Road on April 17. Police have now released a picture of the suspect.

The caller claimed to be from the 'water board' and needed to make a fitting inside the house. He went into the lounge and asked for a cup of tea, but the householder felt uneasy and the man left.

Nothing was taken.

The offender is described as white, in his 30s, around 5ft 6ins tall with an oval-shaped face and dark hair. He wore a navy blue fleece jacket and dark trousers. He may have been using a plain white van or estate car.

Residents are asked to be vigilant and are reminded that there is no such company as the 'water board'.

Anyone who recognises the man is urged to ring DC Michael Stretch at Staffordshire Police on 101.

Choirs join for charity concert

THE Chase Choral Society and the Cannock Ex-Servicemen's Choir are combining for a charity concert.

The May 19 concert, at 7.30pm, is at Lea Hall Social Club, Sandy Lane, Rugeley.

Tickets are £5, with proceeds to Macmillan nurses and other Rotary Club charities. Call 01889 582834.

Teenagers are in the dock over wounding

TWO teenagers charged with wounding another man in Cannock are to have their case heard at crown court. Daniel Simms, of Sweetbriar Way, Heath Hayes and Hayden Simms of Berwick Drive, Cannock are both charged with maliciously inflicting grievous bodily harm on Russell Ambrose in November last year.

The two 19-year-olds gave no indication of their plea when they appeared at Cannock Magistrates Court on Monday (April 23) and will have their case heard at Stafford Crown Court on June 6.

Optician wants donation of old glasses for charity

Chase Eyecare practice manager Jackie Murphy

A LEADING opticians is urging people to recycle their unwanted glasses for a charity which helps people with sight difficulties in developing countries.

Chase Eyecare, with a branch in High Green, Cannock and Market Street, Hednesford, is collecting glasses to be recycled on behalf of Vision Aid Overseas.

People can pop in to either the Cannock and Hednesford branches and drop off their unwanted glasses until the end of May.

Customers who donate unwanted glasses can also receive £20 off their new ones.

Jackie Murphy, Chase Eyecare practice manager at its Cannock branch, said: "Vision Aid Overseas is a wonderful charity which helps so many people in developing countries where excellent eye care facilities are not readily available to people as it is in this country."

Around 670 million people – 10 per cent of the world's population are disadvantaged by poor vision and a lack of glasses. The international charity has been helping some of the poorest people gain better sight for the past 27 years.

Vision Aid Overseas carries out much of its work in Africa including countries such as Ghana, Ethiopia and Zambia but also in other parts of the world such as India.

It is dedicated to helping people in developing countries whose lives are blighted by bad eyesight, particularly in those cases where spectacles can help.

Donated glasses are dispensed abroad by teams of travelling volunteer optometrists.

Marathon fundraiser

A CANNOCK woman is closing in on a grand fundraising effort after running the London marathon. Toni Collier completed last Sunday's 26-mile run in 5:37:32 and has so far raised £931 for a bowel cancer charity as her mother Gillian suffers from the disease.

Explorer tells students to follow their dreams

Sir Ranulph Fiennes with students Annabelle West, Sarah Payne and Charlotte Muteham

The £3.5m Foster Education Centre at Rodbaston

ADVENTURER Sir Ranulph Fiennes told students of his achievements as he officially pened a £3.5 million college centre.

The 68 year-old explorer talked to more than 150 students and held a question and answer session at the Rodbaston campus of South Staffordshire College on Friday (April 20). The aim was to help motivate and inspire young people to follow their dreams and never give up.

Sir Ranulph was in the SAS and became the youngest captain in the British Army. He was the first person to visit both the North and South Poles by surface means and the first to completely cross Antarctica on foot. Three years ago, at the age of 65, he climbed to the summit of Mount Everest.

He praised the college during his visit, which saw him officially launch the Foster Learning Centre, named after former governor and chairman Dennis Foster.

Medical capsule launched

A PILL containing a camera which can take pictures inside patients, helping doctors to make a speedier diagnosis, has been introduced at Stafford Hospital.

The pill has been used worldwide, but has not previously been available in Staffordshire. It has been introduced after the £9,000 needed to fund it was given by the Stafford & Cannock League of Hospital Friends.

Testing of the pill has taken place and it is being implemented by Dr Nick Bosanko and nurse Faye Beard.

Dr Bosanko said: "Capsule endoscopy has previously not been available at any of the hospitals in Staffordshire. This is a painless and non-invasive procedure.

"We are very grateful to the Stafford & Cannock League of Hospital Friends who provided us with the money to purchase the required equipment."

From boots to bouts as Egan steps into the ring

Dave Egan with former Chasetown team-mates

CANNOCK'S Dave Egan will swap boots for bouts after giving up football to take up boxing.

The former Chasetown captain, who played 238 games for the Scholars over two spells in nine years, left at the end of last season to pursue his fight dreams and is now set to make his professional debut.

The non-league outfit have tried to persuade him to come back. But the 29-year-old will instead step into a pro ring for the first time at the New Bingley Hall in Birmingham on May 11.

The punching plumber has some ring experience with Walsall Wood ABC, where he won a Midlands title as an amateur at welterweight.

Egan said: "Chasetown have been having a tough season and a few of the lads have been asking if I will come back. But my mind is made up. I don't want to be 35-years-old wondering what might have been.

"I want to box while I still can and you never know, professional boxing may really suit me."

Egan was a part of the 2005 Chasetown side that made history in becoming the lowest-ranked club to reach the FA Cup first round.

Cameras

But the midfielder missed out on both games against Oldham, as he was cup-tied thanks to a spell at Solihull.

"When we were playing in the FA Cup in front of the Match of the Day cameras, I was sitting in the stands.

"It was really tough to have to sit there and watch."

Tickets for the boxing show are available from Egan on 07723 058 269.

Group can net cash prize to the tune of £10,000

A GROUP fronted by a Cannock singer is looking to reach the final of a music competition with a £10,000 cash prize up for grabs.

Annette Campbell, aged 27, of Soul Preachers, is hoping her group will make it to the top in the Live and Unsigned competition which also offers the winners a chance to perform at at London's O2 Arena.

The winners are promised £10,000 to be spent on development, festival gigs and a United Kingdom tour.

The group, which features other members from Telford, have beaten hundreds of talented bands and artists to make it through to the regional final.

Publicity

The musicians will travel to the Corn Exchange, in St Paul's Square, Bedford, on Sunday, May 13 for the ultimate regional final showcase, to fight for their place in the grand final at Live Fest at the O2, in London.

Ms Campbell, of Norton East Road, Norton Canes, said: "Live and Unsigned is the biggest original music competition in the UK for unsigned bands and artists.

"The main prizes in the competition include £10,000 to be spent on development, a £10,000 publicity investment, a UK tour and a chance to perform at some of the country's top festivals," she added.

Soul Preachers have been performing at local venues since forming a year ago.

Chocolate factory to be visited

NORTON CANES WI

THE April meeting was opened by president Norma Jenvey and Margaret read the minutes.

There is to be a "Summer Celebration" at the County Showground on August 16, organised by the SFWI.

Members are able to visit Denman College for a day at the cost of £30 which includes lunch and a cookery demonstration.

The outing to Thornton's factory is on Thursday May 3.

The August outing will be to the Black Country Museum and is on the 21st, the entrance fee is £15, plus the cost of the transport. There will be a stop on the way home for a meal.

It is Norton's turn to host the next Group Meeting on October 25 at the Methodist Chapel and a speaker has been arranged.

The group is joining in the Diamond Jubilee celebration at the community Centre on June 4 with a bric a brac and cake stall. A donation to club funds has been received from parish council chairman Audra Gilbert.

Norma introduced speaker David Wilkinson, an archaeologist for Staffordshire County Council, who talked and showed slides about the medieval watermills of Staffordshire.

The next meeting is the AGM and 20th celebration on May 2 at the Library, in Brownhills Road, 7.30pm.

President gives out cheques to charities

Pat Roberts, of Midland Air Ambulance, Eileen Cryer, President SI Cannock & District, Hayley Cliff, of Pathway and Janette Arrowsmith, Cannock Friends of St Giles

AT HER last meeting as President, Eileen Cryer took the opportunity to present cheques to three local charities benefiting from the club's fundraising during the year.

She invited Hayley Cliff from Pathway, Pat Roberts from Midland Air Ambulance and Janette Arrowsmith, chairman of Cannock Friends of St Giles to join for a meal and to receive cheques.

Eileen presented a cheque for £1,300 to Pathway and Hayley, deputy director, thanked the club for its continued support.

CANNOCK SOROPTIMISTS

Eileen's chosen charities for the year, Midlands Air Ambulance and St Giles Hospice, each received a cheque for £1,000. Pat Roberts told the club that the money was hugely appreciated, while Janette Arrowsmith told Eileen and members that the amount of £1,000 was far beyond her expectations.

90th birthday celebration

FOLLOWING long-term planning and saving, the group celebrated its 90th birthday – and what a party!

On a superb night of friends, food and entertainment, president Gwyneth welcomed members and guests into the beautifully laid out room. Four senior members were presented with orchid corsages and everyone received a trolley token key ring with the birthday date inscribed.

BURNTWOOD WI

Presentations were made to Freda Read for 60 years of membership, the 75th anniversary salver went to Lin Henn and Kay Taylor won the Denman Bursary.

A four-course meal followed with wine and champagne and ukulele lady Gabrielle entertained.

The raffle was drawn before everyone left with a slice of birthday cake.

Dance stars are Strictly entertaining

An Evening with the stars of Strictly Come Dancing, Prince of Wales Centre, Cannock

IT WAS billed as an evening with the stars of Strictly Come Dancing, but what they all came to see was Cannock couple Ian Powell and Melanie Babb.

The engaged couple joined five other pairs on stage and, as winners of the fun contest, were partnered by Katya and Pasha. It was one of the many touches that made this such a wonderful night.

Children from the Class One Dance Academy gave a routine in either half, UK Showdance champions Lindsey Muckle and Ryan Hammond added their passion and energy to the show, while compere Mike Newman kept the evening ticking along. But the stars of the show were undoubtedly Pasha Kovalev and Katya Virshilas. It is hard to believe the professionals have only known each other since last August when they first paired up for Strictly. Their chemistry and rapport was there for all to see and their dance moves – and costumes – flawless.

Of all the routines, the favourite for me was a replication of the foxtrot that Pasha performed with Chelsee Healey in last year's final.

The audience was invited to quiz the pair during a question and answer session and the stars stayed behind for photographs and autographs.

Des marks six decades in showbiz

Des O'Connor, Wolverhampton Grand

SIX decades in the business and still going strong, legendary entertainer Des O'Connor was greeted with a huge appreciative app-lause from a near-full theatre.

Looking considerably younger than his 80 years, Des oozed charm in his interaction with the audience. His easy going personality, versatile comedy and musical prowess gave him the ability to entertain entirely on his own.

The first half was devoted to comedy, producing howls of laughter with tales about the many tours and shows he had done over the years.

The second half saw powerful renditions of well established songs such as Sweet Caroline, Crazy, The Young Ones and a Buddy Holly medley. He certainly deserves his title of Mr Showbiz.

Les Jowett

Not top of the world

Rainy Days and Mondays: The Carpenters Story, New Alexandra Theatre, Birmingham

RAINY it was although not a Monday as we waited for the Carpenters story to unfold at the New Alexandra Theatre. The venue was not packed although the audience were very receptive – some too much so – and the group made it Yesterday Once More as they ran through the familiar songs.

To call the show Rainy Days and Mondays The Carpenters Story was really overstating it – the songs were there, yes, and illustrated the musical skills of brother Richard but the story was minimal. We were shown a few pictures of Richard and sister Karen and some of the album covers and a small reference was made to her tragic death at a young age. Apart from that, it was just songs and some stumbling around as the band had to be counted in on a couple of occasions. It was stated that it was 'not a dramatisation', so why was it plugged as The Carpenters Story?

Emotion

Singer Claire Furley bore a slight resemblance to Karen and sounded a bit like her but she did not have the vocal depth or emotion to carry it off. The band appeared disinterested, although one did show versatility in the of instruments he could play and was good on the saxophone.

Some of the songs were too upbeat, putting the timing out, and Claire's voice was sometimes drowned out. However, the show did provide more than two hours of classic hits including (They Long to Be) Close to You, Superstar, Goodbye to Love, Sing, We've Only Just Begun, Top of the World, Yesterday Once More, Solitaire, For All We Know, Only Yesterday, and Please Mr Postman. Well received, by some, but maybe that distinctive voice of Karen Carpenter is just too tough an act to follow.

Sue Attwater

Alternative rock from other BBC

Bombay Bicycle Club, Wolverhampton Civic

A CURIOUSLY anonymous combo, the BBC have in three albums established themselves as one of the most original and inventive bands on the UK scene.

They still have not quite got the clout to fill the Civic but the enthusiasm of their young fans was boisterous and infectious.

Warwickshire singer-songwriter Lucy Rose began the night and later shared vocals with Jack Steadman on Lights Out Words Gone and the ethereal Still.

It was soon obvious BBC pack more rock muscle than suggested by singer-guitarist Steadman's floppy fringe.

There's is a unclassifiable blend of psychedelic rock, folkiness and indie rock. A hip alternative to Coldplay, BBC rounded off by encoring with the quirky Shuffle.

Conservatives

Labour claim to be "Your Voice in Tough Times!" but don't forget who put us there in the 1st place!
When Labour were voted out of office they left an incredible amount of debt, Interest only costing our country £120millon per day. Every day !
To reduce this debt we are the party who have taken Tough action to do what had to be done.

6 Points for Cannock Chase District that Labour don't want you to know!

1. Without the current governments financial help this year Labour would not have been able offer the 0% Council Tax.
2. Labour are budgeting for 2.5% Council tax per year for the following 2 years.
3. The Conservative Budget offered a 0% Council tax over the same 3 year period
4. Under the Staffordshire Conservative controlled County Council a brand new Public NHS trust has been set up with the sole purpose of bringing together Social and Health Care under a single budget, offering patients a one stop shop. No Privatisation HERE !

5. Housing:
Labour "claim to want to encourage affordable housing for Cannock Chase residents" but we have 2,671 applicants on our waiting list for council homes.
Labour choose to ignore the opportunity of using the Stadium site to build suitable social and affordable housing to help reduce this list down.

6. Police Crime figures:
Crime is down within Cannock Chase district for the last year. The Chief Constable has publicly stated in Jan 2012 at the Police Authority precept meeting held at Cannock Council offices that front line services will not be affected so the Labour scare tactic is not worth the paper it's written on.

Don't be fooled by Labour scare mongering

Tour operators land Coach of Year award

TOUR operators Parrys International have raced ahead to win the Coach of the Year award at an annual event.

The Cheslyn Hay-based firm scooped the top prize at the UK Coach Rally held at The Peterborough Showground on Sunday (April 22).

The company was judged by industry experts to have the most prestigious, safe and luxurious coach. The brand new vehicle joins the rest of the Van Hool holiday fleet at the company's Landywood Green base.

The 14-metre vehicle features 48 luxury leather reclining seats, a fully-fitted kitchen wash room, touch screen entertainment to every seat, sub-tropical air conditioning and state-of-the-art technology.

Food show to sprout

Helen Fortescue promotes the Fabulous Food & Gift Fair at Gailey Fruit Farm

ORGANISERS of a Fabulous Food and Gift Fair promise a bigger and better event than last year.

The event at Gailey Fruit Farm is set to attract hundreds of visitors on the weekend of June 23 and 24. It takes place from 10am to 4pm each day and follows a successful event held in 2011.

Admission is free and attractions will include local producers selling food and drink and a marquee full of crafts like cards, jewellery and pottery.

There will also be a host of children's activities, a miniature railway, pony and traction engine rides, an animal zone, face painting and quizzes. Refreshments will include a barbecue and cream teas. On the Sunday the MG owners club will set up a stand.

Anne Geoghegan, chairman of South Staffordshire Tourism Association said:"We are delighted that the food fair is taking place again this year and it sounds like it's going to be a great family day out. We really hope people will come and enjoy themselves and see what we have to offer."

Businesses wishing to join the South Staffordshire Tourism Association can contact Paul Geoghegan on 01785 713419, with membership fees at just £40 a year.

Dimming of street lights to save £8m

COUNCIL bosses have agreed to dim all street lights in Staffordshire overnight under plans to save £8 million.

Street lights across the county are being adapted as part of the scheme, which will start immediately.

By Harry Gottschalk

The county council's transport chief Councillor Mike Maryon is in charge of the plans. He has promised not to introduce a blanket night-time switch-off, but said cash could be saved over the next 16 years by installing the dimming equipment.

Agenda

"We will be working with communities as part of the localism agenda and giving them the choice of what happens with street lighting in their area," he said.

All areas face having their street lights dimmed, but some could choose to have them switched off from midnight until 6am when traffic and pedestrian numbers are low. There is an option to brighten up lights if there is a rise in crime or accidents.

Data gathered from across Staffordshire by the county council revealed that traffic on the majority of roads decreases significantly after 6.30pm and any dimming of lights will happen after this time, although the times will have seasonal changes.

Since 2003 a total of 30,000 new street lights have been installed across Staffordshire.

A further 27,000 street lights will be replaced before 2028, the majority of which will be upgraded with the new equipment.

Church's craft fair fundraiser

A HEDNESFORD church is staging a fundraising craft fair this weekend, It takes place at St Peter's church hall, Church Hill, from 10.30am on Saturday (April 28). Refreshment and lunches will be served and it should finish at 2pm in time for town's the miners' memorial dedication.

VOTE LABOUR ON 3rd MAY 2012

Introducing Your Candidates

Labour is Your Voice in Tough Times

Reasons to vote LABOUR on 3rd May 2012:

1. The Tories and Lib Dems have reduced the taxes for millionaires in the Budget.
2. They have brought in the 'Granny Tax' which penalises people who have worked hard all of their lives and puts up their taxes.
3. Our out of touch Government has even brought in a "pasty tax'' and Cameron can't remember when he last had a pasty!

Are we really "all in this together?"

Your LABOUR run Cannock Chase Council has frozen your council tax, frozen councillors' allowances and protected services.

Unlike the Tory-run Lichfield Council which has increased their council tax by 3.4% and is cutting services.

Knockout night for boxing fans at bar

FIGHT fans are in for a knockout night of entertainment as a Cannock bar hosts an evening of amateur boxing.

The Premier Suite, at Bar Sport, in High Green, is the venue for its Boxing Gala Dinner from 7.30pm tonight (Thursday). Sky's Mike Goodall will be master of ceremonies for the black tie event with former promoter Ron Gray and legendary referee Terry O'Connor also in attendance.

Tickets, which include a five course meal, start at £45 and the event begins at 7.30pm. Call 01543 572092.

Success on a plate

Back: co-ordinator, Caroline Bradford and volunteer Terry Bridges. Front: Jan Mitchell of Basix Training and volunteer Zareena Khan

A TEAM of hard-working volunteers has achieved a perfect pass rate in a Food Safety Course exam served up by Basix Training.

The group was awarded nationally recognised certificates by the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health. They will now be serving up hot lunches at the weekly 'Get Together' sessions, held for elderly residents at the Highfields Centre and Longford Court in Cannock.

Jan Mitchell, from BASIX Training said: "I was impressed with how knowledgeable the volunteers were and I congratulate them on their well-deserved success."

BASIX Training offers short courses in Food Safety and Healthy Eating.

BBC crew to film ahead of mining wall dedication

A BBC news crew is filming in Hednesford in the run-up to the town's mining memorial dedication.

Chase Arts in Public Spaces (CHAPS) is behind the project, which features a wall engraved with miners' names and the pit at which they worked. It is being unveiled on Saturday.

Midlands Today will be filming at the town's Davy Lamp monument and at the former Littleton Colliery site in Huntington for an item to be aired around the time of the dedication service at 3pm.

Hundreds of people are expected to pack the town centre for the dedication service, with guests including the Deputy Lieutenant of Staffordshire, James Leavesley, Cannock Council chairman Councillor John Beddows, the chairmen Hednesford, Rugeley and Burntwood town councils and Vernon Jones, a trustee of the Coalfields Regeneration Trust.

Music will be provided by Rugeley Power Station Band and Cannock Chase Orpheus Male Choir, with the service led by Bishop of Manchester the Rt Revd Nigel McCulloch. His wife Celia is daughter of former Cannock vicar Tim Townsend.

'A Lasting Tribute', a book charting the history of the project and listing all those named on the bricks, will be launched and will be available to buy at £5, while window displays will reflect the town's mining industry.

Market Street will be closed to traffic from 1.30pm and parking in the town will be limited.

Concert to raise RNLI funds

A CONCERT in Rugeley will raise funds for the Royal National Lifeboat Institute. The Alstom singers will perform a varied programme at Mansefield House, in Market Street tomorrow night (Friday) from 7.30pm. Tickets are £5 on the door with proceeds going to the Stafford and Rugeley branch of the RNLI.

Rugby pals on ball for game on hallowed turf

CHASE MP Aidan Burley helped to make made the childhood dreams come true for two Cannock work colleagues.

As well as sharing the same surname, Wayne and Robert Ball both share a love of rugby. They both turn out for Cannock and had a dream that one day they might run out on the hallowed national turf at Twickenham.

Thanks to the Conservative MP Mr Burley, their dream was fulfilled as they, played in a game at the 82,000 seater stadium .

They were watched by their family and friends as well as their number one fans, Wayne's sons Oliver, aged three and one-year-old Billy and Robert's daughters, Harriet and Jessica, who are the same ages.

Wayne, aged 47 and 33-year-old Robert were selected for in a combined XV, facing a Common and Lords Parliamentary rugby team in a game organised to raise money for the RFU Injured Players Foundation. The pair, who work for Icon Exhibitions & Display Ltd in Great Wyrley, were both thrilled to learn they were picked to play in the combined team, featuring players from Cannock and their rivals Rugeley.

Icon Exhibitions provided blue and black rugby shirts for the Cannock and Rugeley team, as well as being the team's shirt sponsor.

Ambition

The Chase team triumphed 13-7, but the real winner was the charity, as £10,000 was raised.

Back row flanker Wayne said: "It's every rugby player's ambition to play at Twickenham, and the fact we raised a lot of money at the same time was a bonus.

"This was a once-in-a-life-time opportunity and the whole experience was just amazing."

Mr Burley said: "I was delighted to be able to offer this opportunity. I know how much it meant to the lads to run out on the pitch at Twickenham."

Patriotic children celebrate

YOUNGSTERS have been doing their bit for Queen and country by celebrating both Her Majesty's birthday and St George's day.

The patriotic children at Happy Tots Nursery, at Orbital Plaza, Bridgtown, first of all marked the Queen's actual birthday on Friday (April 20).

They wrote a 'Happy Birthday' letter to Her Majesty and made her cards. As in previous years, the children hope to receive a reply from Buckingham Palace.

The little ones dressed up, made and decorated crowns and flags, baked jam tarts and had a special 'Royal' tea party to which parents were invited.

Happy Tots manager Judy Kelly said: "The children really enjoyed having a party to celebrate the birthday of The Queen."

On Monday (April 23) they celebrated England's patron saint with a host of activities.

They wore red and white outfits and made flags and biscuits adorned with St George colours.

They also made dragons and had their faces painted.

Rugeley

The power station towers dominate the skyline, while a giant Amazon distribution centre has brought a much-needed shot in the arm to the town. A former mining area with a population of more than 22,000, the historic market town of Rugeley is prospering again thanks to the construction of the A51 Western bypass and a new McDonald's drive-thru restaurant that has created hundreds of local jobs. A new leisure centre opened up in Burnthill Lane opened up in 2006 and features an Olympic-sized swimming pool. The town has continued to thrive ever since and boasts its own theatre, the Rose, in Taylors Lane.

Modern pubs include the Glass Works in Brewery Street and the old town cinema, converted into a Wetherspoon's bar and known as the Plaza.

Its historic Charter Fair continues to attract big crowds every June. Three years ago, it marked the 750th anniversary of the granting of the town's market charter. Christmas in the town is always a big draw with a lantern parade and late-night shopping.

Rugeley dates back to medieval times and was even listed in the Domesday book. Today, it has vital transport links in the form of railways and canals and is twinned with Western Springs, Illinois.

Is it reel-y the end for projectionists?

Dudley Showcase will still continue to screen 35mm films

Light House cinema co-ordinator Jas Kapur checks out the film reel

The digital age could mean an end to traditional cinema projectionists

THE cinema projectionist leads a life shrouded in mystery, romance and glamour.

Few of us notice them as they go about their business, but we all know what they look like, don't we? Thin-lipped young men who live in a dark, dusty hideaway at the back of the cinema, illuminated only by a thin beam of flickering light, accompanied by the rapid clicking of the tape spools.

If you're going to modern multiplex, it is more likely to be somebody sitting behind a desk in an office, surrounded by computer screens.

Old-school projectionists, like Jas Kapur of Wolverhampton's Light House cinema, are a dying breed as cinemas make the switch from using film to digital technology.

Traditionally, the job involved taking the film out of a metal can and lacing an endless stream of tiny pictures into a projector.

"With digital it is like a giant memory stick, you put it into a computer and then play the film," says Jas.

For the 49-year-old movies have been a way of life, ever since he began making films on his brother's Super-8 cine camera as a child. As soon as he left school, he went to work at Wolverhampton's old ABC cinema, and remained there until it closed in 1991.

"Then like a shining beacon across the way, The Light House opened, and I have been there ever since."

Archive

But not even the Light House, which has built up a reputation as a traditional arthouse cinema, has escaped the digital revolution.

"At the moment the downstairs is digital, and we're hoping to convert the upstairs as well, but we will be retaining our 35mm projector because we show a lot of archive films."

The Odeon Group, Britain's largest cinema chain, completed its conversion to digital last year. The rival Showcase cinema in Dudley has already made the switch, with all its other cinemas to follow suit by the end of the year.

Phil Clapp of the Cinema Exhibitors' Association, says the switch will inevitably mean a major change in the role of the projectionist.

"While a 35mm projector is a mechanical device with moving parts, a digital projector is very much a piece of IT," he says.

"Projectionists who have been able to strip down and reassemble a 35mm projector with their eyes closed are suddenly being presented with a box with an on-off switch."

Adam Day, of Showcase Cinemas, says multi-screens will be able to show 3D content, including live events such as opera, ballet and sport, through satellite link-ups.

He says all Showcase cinemas will retain the ability to screen some 35mm films where digital prints are not available, or for special events.

Another reason why the giant cinema chains love digital– it is much cheaper.

Welcome To Heath Hayes

Over the years, the status of Heath Hayes has changed from a small village to a large mixed residential and industrial development. Situated within the Cannock Chase District, a population of more than 12,000 make up Heath Hayes and Wimblebury, which combine to form the parish of the same name.

Until the 1980s, the two villages were separate but an increase in the number of homes being built led to the green fields between the two parishes disappearing and the two subsequently merged.

Heath Hayes centre is home to a range of shops, pubs and restaurants, as well as the village library. Tesco and the Winding Wheel pub are among the better known outlets on the edge of the village. Heath Hayes Park and memorial garden is located on the Five Ways island, while there is football team that plays in Newlands Lane, is currently enjoying life in the Midland Alliance. The club was established in 1965.

Barry wrote the songs and now it could be magic again

EIGHTY million units sold and more than 40 hits, Barry Manilow has set the benchmark for success in popular music since his breakthrough in the 1970s with Mandy, Could It Be Magic and I Write The Songs.

After a series of albums covering classics songs from several genres, Manilow last year brought out his first album of original songs in 10 years, 15 Minutes, an exploration of the perils of fame.

Manilow is perhaps at his very best in concert where he is a consummate showman, drawing on an extensive back catalogue and delivering his songs with his own brand of self-deprecating humour.

His legion of Fanilows will be out in force when he returns to the stage in the UK, including at Birmingham's LG Arena on May 17. Tickets range from £25 to £85. Call 0844 338 8000.

Barry Manilow's fanilows will be at the LG next month

Dan's debut due in May

WOLVERHAMPTON singer/songwriter Dan Whitehouse is busy with his debut album, a folk career and using his talent for music as a therapy for people with memory loss through brain injury.

He will be back on home turf on May 4 when he supports Scott Matthews at the Newhampton Arts Centre, Whitmore Reans, and his tour takes him across the Midlands where he will play Birmingham's Songwriters Cafe on May 17; The Spark, Lichfield on June 7; The BHG Kidderminster on July 10; Life and Other Arts Festival, Stourbridge, on July 15 and Moseley Folk Festival on September 2. Dan's album is out on May 23.

Irish jokers at Civic

RAUCOUS Irish comedy show Good Mourning Mrs Brown has sold out five consecutive performances at Wolverhampton Civic Hall this week. Then Irish comic Dara O'Briain has three nights at the Civic from May 18-20 with his Craic Dealer show. Call 0870 320 7000.

Drum 'n' bass 'n' ballet in Brum

ONE of the highlights of the International Dance Festival Birmingham will be Three Short Works by Birmingham Royal Ballet at the Crescent Theatre on May 3 and 4.

These will include 9-5, a new one-act ballet developed by BRB dancer Kit Holder from his exciting drum 'n' bass work Printer Jam. Also featured will be Lyric Pieces by American choreographer Jessica Lang and Take Five, David Bintley's jazz creation to music by Dave Brubeck.

Tickets costs from £10 to £18 and there will be an extra matinee peformance on May 4. Call 0121 643 5858.

They're off to see the wonderful Wizard of Oz

A £20,000 production of The Wizard of Oz is being staged by Willenhall Musical Theatre Company this week at Sedgley's Dormston Theatre.

And among the cast is a special member – a rescue dog who is playing Toto. Sammy the terrier cross was spotted by a group member's six-year-old daughter at Coven's Sunnyside Kennels.

Rob Dixon, who is playing Tinman, said: "We contacted Sunnyside after the visit and they were happy for Sammy to take part. She's taken to the stage quite well. She's been great."

Evening performances continue to the last night on Saturday at 7.30pm. Tickets are £12.50 and £8 children.

THE VOICE UK

BBC1, 7pm

The blind auditions are over, and the unique selling point (the fact the judges couldn't see who they'd chosen to mentor) has been exhausted, will it be just like The X Factor from here on? That remains to be seen, but with a recent episode thrashing Britain's Got Talent in the ratings, you can bet Simon Cowell is a little worried as his quest for ratings supremacy is threatened once more. This week, the four celebrity mentors start the opening live round with a group performance to show the wannabe stars how it's done. Then, the five remaining acts in Tom and Will's teams take centre stage. The results show is tomorrow at 7.25pm.

ANTIQUES ROADSHOW

It's a well-known fact that Britain loves a good antique. You only have to take into consideration the longevity and popularity of this show, itself something of a much-treasured oldie, to see that it's true. This week, Fiona and the team head to the famed town of Stratford-upon-Avon, where with William Shakespeare's home so close by, they make a particular search for objects from the days of Elizabethan England. Up for examination are a dining table, a jewel said to have magical powers, and a portrait of Robert Dudley, First Earl of Leicester, and an important patron of theatre in the court of Elizabeth I.

And the Esta goes to – C Residential again

The C Residential team with their 'Esta' presented by property expert Phil Spencer

A RUGELEY based agency has been named as the best in the West Midlands for the fifth time.

C Residential received the Gold Award at the estate agents version of the Oscars, the 'Estas', after being recognised for its excellent customer service. The award was voted for by clients during the course of 2011.

The award was announced by Phil Spencer, the TV property expert at a lavish luncheon and ceremony at the Hilton Park Lane, London. It was attended by 550 of the UK's top estate and letting agents.

Angi Cooney, Director of C Residential said: "All the team is delighted to have won the gold award for the fifth time.

"We pride ourselves on high levels of customer service and this award is special as it's our clients who have rated us not a judging panel."

She added: "A very special thank you from me has to go to Monique McPeake, sales manager and Lisa Davis who worked tirelessly through a difficult market last year.

"However, this award is for the whole team as it makes all the long hours and effort by everyone in Sales & Lettings absolutely worth it!

Phil Spencer said: "The Estas are the most important and valuable awards in our industry. An Esta is not an easy accolade to pick up, to win one requires a lot of hard work, over a very long period of time."

Simon Brown, owner of the awards added "Agents that take part in the Estas believe passionately in providing the highest quality customer service.

"They are prepared to go that extra mile, prepared to take criticism as well as praise and prepared to invest and develop their businesses accordingly".

The results of the competition were determined by research carried out among customers who are asked a series of questions about the service they have received from their agent. More than 33,000 votes were received making it the biggest consumer survey of its kind in the property industry.

Standard

The Estas are sponsored by Zoopla.co.uk the property search website.

Jon Notley, commercial director said: "The Estas are about consumers, consumers who have recognised agents for the high standard of customer service that they provide. This is exactly why Zoopla is involved with the Estas for the second year running and we are delighted to support and be part of this key industry event".

DON'T let common sense rule your entire life. There are plenty of things that you need to keep a cool head over: what pension you should choose and perhaps which car insurance policy to get – the humdrum and the everyday.

Most of us need to apply this logic to our choice of car too, but if you're a little fortunate and prepared to compromise a little, you can have a little bit of divine madness in your life. Honda makes very good, very sensible cars. There's a brand-new Civic now of course, but the previous generation was no less impressive. And aside from the very slick and modern exterior and futuristic interior, it was a sensible and solid as any Honda.

Then it brought out the Type-R version, which looked the business and went pretty well thanks to the fiery 2.0-litre VTEC engine.But that wasn't enough for Mugen, the tuning arm of Honda.

It created the Civic Type-R Mugen.

It was lightened by 100kg, including beautiful lighter alloy wheels and composite body panels, lowered and stiffened suspension and super grippy tyres.

There were also some significant engine upgrades that liberated an extra 40bhp and 15lb.ft of torque.

In short, it was a genuine fire-breathing hot hatch. It was also not cheap at £38,995, although you were getting one of only 20 cars with some serious engineering added.

The new Civic's arrival should have been the end of the story, but there were a few remaining cars and the Mugen people decided to go back and make it even more crazy. By increasing the engine capacity to 2.2 litres, power went up to 256bhp and torque to 177lb.ft for one final hurrah.

And what a car it is. You'll spot it's a Civic straight away of course, but like no other on the road.

The exterior upgrades include a BTCC-like massive rear wing, which on another car could look daft but on the Civic's modern, radical shape looks just right.

Finished in Championship White with a prominent Mugen graphic on the flank, it is as purposeful as you could wish for. It looks ready to head out on to the track and set a pole position time.

Climb inside and you drop straight into the very huggy Recaro seats. Apart from being very supportive and comfortable, they have huge side bolsters that clamp you in place.

If you hadn't realised by this point that the Mugen Type-R is a proper driving machine, the fact that your bottom isn't going anywhere tells you all you need to know. Turn the key then finger the starter button and the engine spins rapidly into life, idling quite high at first with a serious rasp from the large diameter exhaust.

Kangaroo

The gear lever slots firmly into first, and the upgraded clutch has a sharp bite – a brief kangaroo moment is inevitable until you get used to it and it sums up the whole car; it is a precision tool that needs to be driven with purpose.

Within 50 yards you'll notice that the suspension is firm. On really rough roads you might wish it was a shade softer, but if you want a compromised car then look elsewhere. Driven sedately, the engine feels more than sufficiently torquey, the steering is sharp and the pedals all respond with pinpoint accuracy. And yes you can relax while behind the wheel: the Civic settles down to the task of just getting you where you want to go.

But to drive it this way is a waste. You need a twisty and open section of road to discover what the Mugen is all about.

If you didn't know it already, Type-Rs are all about revs and with this 2.2 Mugen even more so. You need to work this car hard and once the needle passes 6,000rpm, the exhaust note turns from a roar to a manic blare. It surges forward with renewed vigour and the grin grows further across your face.

No other production car bar six-figure supercars can provide such an intoxicating mix of noise and pace. And the super-slick gearshift helps you keep it on the boil: snap changing between ratios is a pure delight.

And when you arrive at the first bend, the experience continues in the same vein.

The uprated brakes give a very firm pedal action that inspires huge confidence, and it takes a long time before you find the limit of the braking power.

Then the sharpness of the steering takes over as you peel into a bend, the front tyres biting hard and gripping more than you thought possible.

You have to push and push before the Mugen Civic starts to push back, and when you eventually find the grip running out, it helps you gather it all up again.

Driven like this you forget all about the price tag and savour the engineering that has gone into it and the visceral experience that it delivers.

Vauxhall take fresh approach to Meriva

THE MERIVA was introduced back in 2003 and it has been a very successful small vehicle with over 100,000 being sold in the UK.

By Bob Hickman

However it was getting a bit old and it needed a makeover and thankfully Vauxhall didn't go down the road of let's just tweak the headlamps, or put new door handles on, no they have created a completely new and very stylish looking vehicle.

When you look at the vehicle, the front has the corporate look that says I am a Vauxhall, but the biggest change without doubt is when you look at the side profile, Vauxhall have taken the rather brave step of equipping the Meriva with what they describe as flex-doors. Flex-doors basically are doors that are hinged backwards which then swing open towards the rear of the car at an angle of almost 90 degrees, this makes this vehicle almost a must for people with young children or mobility issues that need to utilise the rear of the car.

The doors cannot be opened by the occupants whilst the Meriva is travelling at more than two mph. The concept itself is nothing new but it does promote Meriva very high on to the list of must have if you are a family and need vehicles that have ease of access for children and child seats.

Journey

The designers have really worked overtime inside the vehicle, there is a completely new approach to the centre console and a variety of storage and comfort solutions are incorporated. I do like vehicles that have lots and lots of nooks and crannies to secrete the bits and pieces that we seem to have to take with us on our journey

The rear seats can be folded down to increase the amount of luggage capacity and also the flex-space system allows for the movement of rear seats to create a little bit of head or shoulder room. The boot also has a secret compartment, the floor of the boot can be lifted and you can store items away from prying eyes.

There is a choice of engine configurations for the Meriva with several petrols and diesels as options, the petrols based primarily on 1.4-litre engines and the diesels will be a variety either of 1.3 or 1.7-litres. The engineers at Vauxhall are still striving to get their CO2 emissions down and it is going to be some time before they are down in to the realms of the CO2 emissions which qualify for free or very low road tax, but they are working very hard to achieve this.

My Meriva was equipped with a 1.4-litre turbo charged engine with a capacity of 1364cc, and produced 140 bhp, sufficient Vauxhall suggest of a top speed of 122 mph and a 0 – 60 in marginally over 10 seconds. The five-speed gearbox was quite a notchy easy to use configuration, I did find however that the vehicle could be lethargic in fourth and fifth gears and if an overtake was necessary it was essential to get that engine and more importantly the turbo spinning to give you the get up and go that you need.

The vehicles are well equipped, although on my model Vauxhall had taken the trouble to spend £855 on a satellite navigation system and if it was my money I wouldn't bother, I found my own £100 Tom-Tom was far more efficient and try as I would with the sat nav in the Vauxhall I couldn't get it to accept postcodes and a trip in to a Shropshire hamlet proved very difficult with the on-board system but a doddle with the Tom-tom.

Standard features on my vehicle included electric front windows which was a surprise, as the rear flexi doors have good old fashioned wind-up windows.

An absolute plethora of air bags are incorporated and Vauxhall have enabled an air bag deactivation switch so you can safely put a child seat on the front passenger seat. I am not too convinced an electronic parking brake is necessary, but you do get used to it.

From a driving perspective the vehicle is a little higher than normal so it does give you an extra bit of visibility, but nothing too dramatic.

It was a comfortable, predictable vehicle to drive, nothing too exciting but you don't expect that from this type of vehicle.

It does everything that you require from a saloon to transport the family about.

Pricing structures for the Meriva vary from £13,000 up to a hefty £22,000, my 1.4-litre turbo was priced at £19,740, the extras fitted took it over £21,000 and the fuel figures quoted for the engine was a not too exciting 42.2 mpg on the combined figure. CO2 is quoted at 156 and that puts it sadly in to the £155 excise duty, and that is a shame.

As with all new Vauxhalls it is eligible for the company's Lifetime 100,000 miles warranty.

The Meriva features handy flex-door rear access

Suzuki cuts pollution and saves fuel costs

Glittering Grey Metallic is one of the Alto's colour options

THE Alto Minor Change model for 2012 includes the addition of Dual VVT (Variable Valve Timing) for greater flexibility and response. This modification has resulted in further reductions in CO2 emissions and improvements to fuel consumption.

The latest model incorporates a new interior colour and fabric trim, new full wheel covers for SZ and SZ3 models and dipping rear view mirror. Glistening Grey metallic has been added to the range as an optional colour.

Alto with manual transmission emits 99g/km CO2 and the optional automatic transmission SZ4 model benefits from lower emissions with a reduction to 118g/km from 122g/km. This has resulted in a lower VED Band and a drop from £95 to just £30, free in the first year. Alto is manufactured at Maruti Suzuki's Manesar assembly plant near Delhi, India.

Suzuki achieves annual sales of 50,000 units in Europe of which around 7,000 are sold in the UK.

Maruti Suzuki India, in which Suzuki Motor Corporation has a 54 per cent stake, is India's largest carmaker with a 50 per cent domestic market share and celebrated its 28th anniversary in December 2011.

More than 10 million Suzuki cars have been produced and sold in India since the launch in 1983 of the Maruti 800, India's first affordable world-class car. There are over four and a half million Altos currently on the roads there.

Efficient

The Alto shares the highly efficient 1.0-litre 3-cylinder K10B petrol unit with the European-built Splash model.

This Euro 5 compliant 12-valve engine is light and compact and achieves a combined fuel consumption of 65.7mpg and CO2 emissions of 99g/km (with manual transmission).

These figures make the Alto one of the cleanest petrol-powered city cars on sale in the UK.

The Alto is offered with a five-speed manual gearbox or a four-speed automatic transmission.

Pollution drops and so do costs of the new MG6

Production improvements at MG's Birmingham factory mean bonuses for car buyers

IMPROVED production methods have paid dividends for customers of the award-winning MG6 who will get better fuel consumption, lower CO2 emissions and less road tax.

On-the-road prices of all MG6 GT and MG6 Magnette models have been reduced thanks to the new systems.

Many of the production advances have been made at MG Motor UK's factory in Birmingham where final assembly is carried out. The cars are designed and engineered by 300 professionals at two centres of excellence at the Birmingham site.

The latest 2012 cars see C02 figures drop from 184g/km to 174g/km which reduces the vehicle excise duty by one band. This saves £50 on the first year's road tax and £20 a year after that.

Fuel consumption improves with the urban cycle increasing from 26.1mpg to 27.7mpg. The extra urban cycle increases from 45.2mpg to 48.7mpg and the combined figure goes from 35.6mpg to 37.7mpg.

Xhed

Improved VED figures mean recommended on-the-road prices for all MG6 models drop by £40. MG6 ownership starts from £15,455 for an MG6 GT fastback in S model trim.

Prices for MG6 GT models in SE trim are reduced to £16,955 and the TSE trim model comes down from £18,995 to £18,955. The flagship MG6 Magnette model drops to £19,955.

Guy Jones, sales and marketing director at MG Motor UK said: "This is yet more good news from MG. It comes on top of a fantastic debut by Jason Plato and Andy Neate in racing versions of the MG6 at the Brands Hatch opening races of the Dunlop MSA British Touring Car Championship.

"We scooped the What Car? 2012 Security Award at the start of the year and we are expanding our dealer network all the time so things are really going well for us. But most importantly, people are now realising what a great value for money package the MG6 is as well as being a fantastic car to drive."

Mazda will introduce a spirit of adventure with its new model

The Venture Edition is a step up from the Mazda6 TS2 models

MAZDA is introducing three 'Venture Edition' models of its popular Mazda6, priced from £21,000.

The new Mazda6 Venture Edition trio (petrol and diesel five-door and diesel estate models), is based on Mazda6 TS2 models, and has several items of additional equipment, with Sanyo TomTom navigation, integrated Bluetooth, half-leather seat trim and heated front seats.

Outside, Venture Edition models are distinguished by 17-inch gunmetal alloy wheels, Sports front grille, privacy glass and a special range of colours – including Brilliant Black and optional Crystal White Pearlescent, Black Mica or Stormy Blue Mica, as well as a unique colour for this version – Dolphin Grey Mica.

Showrooms

"The arrival of the new Mazda6 Venture Edition models, with their unique combination of advanced technology, sports styling, a premium interior and great added value, will attract new consumers to our showrooms," said Peter Allibon, sales director, Mazda UK.

"In its latest form, Mazda6 has aggressive front styling and delivers a dynamic and engaging drive, with strongly performing petrol and diesel engines, plus finely tuned suspension and steering, and a top quality spacious and practical interior.

"Mazda6 also boasts competitive fuel consumption and CO2 emissions, and all these attributes are underpinned by reduced costs and Mazda's outstanding Japanese-style build quality and reliability," Mr Allibon said.

The Mazda6 Venture Edition equipment upgrades and additions cost £340 to £480 and just 257 examples of the Mazda6 Venture Editions are available.

Models benefit from the standard equipment of the TS2 which includes: front, side and curtain airbags, rear vehicle monitoring system, front rain-sensing wipers, leather steering wheel with audio controls, six disc CD changer with auxiliary jack and six speakers, front and rear parking sensors and a Thatcham Category 1 alarm.

Powerful

From Mazda's range of responsive and powerful engines, the petrol hatchback Venture Edition is powered by a 2.0-litre (155ps) MZR engine which accelerates to 62mph in 10.3 seconds and returns 40.9mpg (combined) with a 159g/km CO2 rating.

Buyers who prefer diesel can enjoy a 2.2-litre (163ps) MZR-CD engine that accelerates to 62mph in 9.2 seconds, and returns 53.3mpg (combined cycle) with low emissions of 140 to 141g/km (hatchback/estate). These two models qualify for Road Fund Licence bands E and F, while reduced Benefit In Kind costs offer significant savings.

The 4.78-metre long Mazda6 estate is a capable load carrier, with Mazda's unique Karakuri 60/40 split, easy-fold seat mechanism.

This model holds a cargo volume of 1,751 litres when loaded to the roof with the rear seats folded flat.

In Memoriam

CRUTCHLEY

John

April 25, 2010.

From the moment that you left us our hearts were broke in two. We often lay awake at night when the world is fast asleep and take a walk down memory lane with tears upon our cheeks. Remembering is easy we do that every day, it's the heartache of losing you that will never go away.

Loved and missed so very much.

Beloved Wife Beryl, Sons Mark and Paul, Daughter and Fiance Sue and Dan.

DUNNING
Sheila

Now one of God's angels.
All my love, forever.
Doug.

Local Tradesmen

TIPS OF THE WEEK

In these days of rising energy bills you may consider renewable technologies to save you money but before you invest in any renewable technologies you should always make sure your home is thoroughly insulated in order to make the maximum savings. Take advice from a local builder and The Federation of Master Builders.

When starting a building project always use a contract which should include details such as start and completion dates, costs and payment plan. You can download a free contract from the Federation of Master Builders (FMB), the largest trade association in the UK construction industry, http://www.fmb.org.uk/find-a-builder/free-contracts/.

Protect your investment in your home by getting building work covered by an insurance-backed warranty, such as those offered by Build Assure. Build Assure offer a wide range of insurance products to suit your individual requirements and building project Visit www.fmbuildassure.co.uk to find out more.

The Federation of Master Builders (FMB), the largest trade association in the UK construction industry, http://www.fmb.org.uk/fab/.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:
1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.
Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

Battling teenagers go down fighting

Stratford Town 3 Heath Hayes 0

SHORT-HANDED Hayes boss Simon Davies was forced to include six teenagers in his squad for this penultimate Midland Alliance fixture.

But the young side were not overwhelmed and, particularly in the second half, proved a match for their more experienced opponents.

Despite a shaky start Hayes battled well and were unfortunate to concede a 31st-minute goal to Town's leading scorer Mykel Beckley.

Hayes kept plugging away and it took an excellent save from home keeper Sam Brady to keep out Liam Degville's 25-yard screamer.

Poor defending from a corner allowed Chris Murray to double the lead deep in first-half stoppage time.

With Dave Waple and Ben Porter running their socks off up front, it took a couple of smart saves from Brady to prevent them scoring.

The last kick of the game saw a superb strike from Mark Faulds fly into the net to give the scoreline a somewhat misleading look.

Sporting role given to runner

TOM HUMPHRIES has been named as one of two sporting ambassadors in the Olympic year by sports organisers KP Events.

The Cannock and Stafford AC star is currently ranked in the top five in Great Britain over 5,000m and is a possible pick behind Mo Farrar for this summer's London Olympics.

The other is 1,500m runner Phil Clamp, of Tipton Harriers.

Kevin Wilson, of KP Events, said: "Tom receives no support from the Lottery.

"He's looking to be at London in a few months' time, so we will do what we can to help him.

"Phil is quite simply a class act and a great athlete and good coach, so we want to use his skills to work with young upcoming local running talent."

The second annual Lichfield half-marathon takes place on Sunday at 10.30am.

For details, call race director Paul Griffin on 07947 698 147.

Cribb grabs winner

Hawkins Sports U10 face the camera

Hawkins Sports U10 2 Holy Name U10 1

TWO goals from Alex Cribb gave Hawkins the victory.

Cribb struck after just four minutes, but Holy Name levelled by tucking away a rebound after a fine save by Hawkins keeper Rob Phillips.

Cribb bagged the winner when he sent an excellent free-kick into the top corner.

Hawkins Sports U10 3 DDC Colts U10 0

Hawkins, needing a win to go top, took a first-half lead through an own goal.

Their second came from Connor Farmer, a cool finish after being set up by Kyle Weaver's run.

Farmer tucked away his second goal to guarantee the victory.

A champion finish

Rugeley 16 Wednesbury 10

RUGELEY seconds ended the season as rugby's Midlands Merit League Five champions.

Matty Keys kicked them into an early lead with a penalty and then added another with the Rugeley back line of Mark Williams, Mathew Connell and Ed Jones soaking up a series of attacks by the visitors.

Wednesbury halved the deficit with a penalty on the half-hour.

But they conceded another penalty, duly punished by Keys, which saw Rugeley lead 9-3 at hte break.

The home team put together some impressive set plays in the second period, but were shocked after 20 minutes of the half when Wednesbury broke from the pack and their flanker crossed between the posts. The converted try put the visitors ahead by a single point at 10-9.

But Rugeley, under the promptings of skipper Barrie Newton and determined not to lose the season's final match, responded.

Scrum-half Michael Wilks broke clear and thought he had scored the winning try, only for the referee to rule that he had played the ball on the ground.

But with just two minutes left, fly-half Dan Howe was able to push a maul under the opposition posts and drop on the ball.

Keys landed the conversion to round off the scoring.

Egan wants to have a ball as a paid fighter

CANNOCK'S former footballer Dave Egan today vowed to take the "mental toughness" he gained from playing for Chasetown into the professional boxing world.

Egan, who played 238 games and captained the Scholars over two spells in nine years at the club, makes his paid debut at the New Bingley Hall in Birmingham on May 11.

And, at age 29, the punching plumber starts out at the New Bingley Hall in Birmingham knowing the clock is ticking for him in the fighting game.

But he's not the first footballer to switch sports – Curtis Woodhouse has moved into contention for the British title in an eliminator against Dale Miles.

by Craig Birch

The former Birmingham and England under-21 midfielder is also a welterweight but Egan has the benefit of an amateur career.

Woodhouse turned pro with no amateur experience, whereas Egan lifted an ABA Novice Midlands title last year boxing for Walsall Wood ABC and has competed in 16 unpaid contests.

As a player, Egan was part of a Chasetown side that shot up the non-league pyramid, with two promotions during his time there.

Challenge

Higher levels meant better players coming in but Egan kept his place and he was even asked to come out of retirement for the just-gone season.

And the former midfielder is ready to 'up his game' again to make his mark as the best fighting footballer in the game.

He said: "When I was at Chasetown, the other lads in the team had been released from pro clubs at age 18 and had filtered down.

"I, on the other hand, had started put playing Sunday football, worked my way up and went on to become one of their better players.

"At my age, I am going to have to do it the hard way, going on the road at short notice to fight tough lads," he added.

"But the one thing I believe I have got on others is mental toughness. I know what I am capable of if I put my mind to it."

Egan missed history at Chasetown, as he was cuptied when the club reached the FA Cup first round for the first time in 2005.

Heartbreak also nearly put paid to a future in boxing as well, just a day after he won his first title, the ABA Novice Midlands crown, last November.

At work, Egan severely injured his hand in an accident and was told by doctors that his pro boxing career could have been over before it had started.

He said: "It had been the best Monday I had ever had and I had hardly slept, because you don't straight after a fight.

"Everybody at work was calling me 'champ' all day and I was buzzing, even coming towards the end of the day.

"I was cutting a piece of plastic and slipped with a Stanley blade but there was no pain, I just couldn't feel anything.

"The blade had gone 100 per cent through the tendon on the back of my hand, middle and ring fingers and most of the way through my index finger.

"It was major, major surgery – I could see all of my bones when it happened – and I had to sign things to say I might not be able to use my hand properly again."

The main event on Egan's bill has also been saved, after Marcus Portman stepped up to take the fight with hometown fighter Nasser Al Harbi in the 10-round light-middleweight top liner.

Portman replaces fellow West Bromwich competitor Young Mutley – real name Lee Woodley.

Tickets are available from Egan on 07723 058 269.

Salt in the wounds as bid to stay up is foiled

Old Saltleians 41 Burntwood 3

BURNTWOOD were thwarted in their bid to pull off the great escape.

They restricted the SSE Midlands Two West (North) runners-up to a solitary try in the first half. But Old Salts showed why they are in the play-offs with six tries in the second period.

A Burntwood win would not have spared them the drop in any event as both Lordswood Dixonians and Spartans won their fixtures.

Old Salts had the better of the first half, but Burntwood broke the siege after 12 minutes. Skipper Graham Shelley kicked and regained possession, but his pop pass under pressure to Matt Wood just missed its target.

Chipped

Old Salts scored on 24 minutes as the left-winger made a forceful run and the ball was re-cycled for a dive over the line.

Salts got another try when Nick Peplow lost possession and the home side's fly-half chipped through and followed up to score wide left.

Steve Blockley and Holt combined to win a penalty which Wood landed from 30 metres into the wind.

But Salts won possession at the restart and touched down for a third try, quickly adding a fourth.

Just after the hour, a sustained Salts attack concluded with a slick reverse pass for a converted try.

Two further tries followed as Burntwood were consigned to their fate. Their season concludes at The Sportsway on Saturday with the visit of Welsh touring side Abercarn (2pm).

On May 12 the club defends its Old Newtonians veterans tournament title.

The club's presentation night is on Friday, May 4 and the AGM on Wednesday, May 16 – both in the clubhouse.

Bull goes at the bowling

Penn 123, Cannock 106-6. Draw.

CANNOCK thirds began their cricket season with a winning draw over Penn fourths on a wet afternoon.

Cannock took three early wickets, but a stubborn 70 from Chris Haynes saw Penn to 123.

Cannock, needing 78 off 28 overs for the winning draw, got there thanks to a stand of 50 in which Tom Bull made 22.

Scholars retain cup thanks to supersub

Quorn Res 2 Chasetown Res 3

SCHOLARS Reserves collected their second silverware of the campaign as they lifted the Midland Combination Trophy with a sturdy victory at Quorn.

Quorn, league runners-up to Chasetown, again proved to be testing opposition for the third time this season.

Jamie Aiton and Karl Edwards supplied first-half goals for the Scholars and Jed Davies came off the bench to grab the winner.

Aiton opened the scoring within two minutes with a thumping header from a Jonathan Gould corner.

Quorn responded and Lee Attenborough whipped a clever delivery into the box for George Lutaaya, whose bold turn was matched by a cheeky chip into the roof of the net.

Chasetown regained the lead after 32 minutes with Edwards netting his 20th goal in as many appearances. Quorn levelled with a 71st-minute penalty from Chris Baker, but Davies curled in the winner.

Athletic treble chance still on

Chase Athletic U13 Juniors 4 Sutton Reds U13 3

TREBLE-chasing Lichfield League Division One leaders Chase are still in the hunt for a trophy hat-trick – but so nearly threw away their title hopes here.

It was left to Josh Davies, with his second of the game late on, to give Chase the points after they had let a three-goal lead slip.

Needing to win all their remaining games to be sure of a second successive title, Chase led through Connell Jevons, Joe Hartshorne and Davies, but needed the latter's second to settle it after Sutton drew level.

Late Fawdon goal is winner

Hednesford United U12 Girls 2 Stafford Town U12 1

SAMANTHA FAWDON'S goal nine minutes from time gave Hednesford the win.

Paige Smith-Kirkham opened the scoring for the home team when she wrapped her foot around a lovely cross from Lana Titley.

Stafford came back and levelled but Fawdon struck after Lois Brindley set up Titley for another cross.

Hagley Park Academy played in the warm-up match at Twickenham

A grand day out at Twickenham for the Fair Oak Academy players

Rugby rivals join up to lord it over team of MPs

CHASE rugby rivals Rugeley RFC and Cannock RFC joined forces for two once-in-a-lifetime experiences in one day.

Chase MP Aidan Burley organised a match for his two constituency rugby clubs to take on the Commons & Lords rugby teams in a charity match at Twickenham Stadium. The two clubs were able to raise more than £10,000 for the RFU Injured Players Foundation.

The teams dubbed themselves the 'Chase Coalition' and ran out 13-7 winners, scoring two tries to one.

John Owen, RFU past president and chairman of the board of trustees of the RFU Injured Players Foundation, received the £10,900 proceeds.

The sum included £300 from each Cannock and Rugeley player for their chance to play on the hallowed turf, a donation by the Commons & Lords and more than £600 raised from a post-match auction of memorabilia.

The Staffordshire teams' day – they set off at 5.30am – was topped off by a visit to Downing Street for a photocall outside No.10 and a look inside the Cabinet Room.

Support

The RFU Injured Players Foundation (IPF) supports people who sustain a catastrophic injury while playing rugby. The charity, which has more than 130 clients, provides help and support for players and their families in both short and long-term.

Burley said: "One of the first things I did on getting elected as an MP in 2010 was accept an invitation to the Rugeley RUFC annual dinner, and I was soon persuaded to play a game for their second XV.

"It was a privilege to be asked to organise an opposition for this charity match and I thought that my two local clubs, normally archrivals, would be perfect."

Commons & Lords 7
Chase Coalition 13

Burley was joined in the Commons & Lords team by Lord Addington and MPs Mike Penning and Stephen Mosley.

The game, played in four quarters, began with a try for the Chase Coalition by Dave Gregory.

But the Commons & Lords struck back when Penning, Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Transport, caught a lineout and saw the ball moved expertly for Jug Johal to score a try converted by James Faiers.

A penalty goal squeezed over by Tom Impallomeni with eight minutes remaining edged the combined Cannock and Rugeley side back in front.

Delighted prop Tommy Wilson then celebrated a once-in-a-lifetime try at Twickenham from a rolling maul to clinch the match for the coalition.

Two Year Seven teams from Fair Oak and Hagley Park Academy were part of the fun, playing a curtain-raiser on the Twickenham pitch.

The players enjoyed post-match hospitality in the Twickenham Members Room and then visited Downing Street.

Martin de Ridder, Rugeley RUFC director of rugby, said: "This was a fantastic day for everyone involved.

"We knew Aidan had made arrangements for a visit to Downing Street, but we didn't know we would get to be photographed in front of No.10 and were astounded when we were invited in.

"We were asked to keep the noise down as the Prime Minister was conducting a meeting inside.

"We went through to the Cabinet Room and sat around the cabinet table.

"Coincidentally Adam Grocott, whose dad is a Cannock Chase councillor for the Liberal Democrats, sat in Nick Clegg's seat."

Two teams start the season with a win

CANNOCK & RUGELEY started the 2012 cricket season with wins for two teams and a rain-affected draw for the other.

The firsts, at home to Wightwick quickly reduced the visitors to 15-3 with two wickets for Dan Aston.

But Wightwick recovered to post 197-7 with Alexander Butler making 95. Ali Fawcett and James Lawley made a fine start to the home side's innings, with a half-century opening stand, before Fawcett was run out.

Lawley and Ryan Ponder then took Cannock & Rugeley to 85-1 and the brink of the winning draw target before a heavy downpour brought an end to the proceedings.

The seconds won at Walsall YPF, bowling out their hosts for 110 with the wickets being shared by Simon Cooper, Rob Meek, Ed Lawley and Jock Caan.

Cannock & Rugeley started their innings positively, with Rhys Morgan making 47 out of an opening stand of 60, Simon Hawkins 22 and Luke Furley 31.

Wickets were lost as Cannock & Rugeley tried to reach their target before the rain came. They eventually got over the line for the loss of four wickets.

The thirds played Swindon at Cannock Wood and made a dream start, bowling them out for just 47 as Mark Hutton made arguably the club's best ever debut in taking 8-27 while Ryan Turner snared the other two.

After a downpour Cannock & Rugeley knocked off the required runs, losing only Steve Benton. Paul Beech and Ian Hawkins took them to a nine-wicket win.

Post-haste for scorer Richards

Brereton Town FC U12 4
Burntwood Dragons U12 Reds 1

BRERETON TOWN won this top-of-the-table clash to take the title.

Burntwood started brightly, but Brereton took the lead from the last of three successive corners which was met at the far post by Morgan Richards.

A second goal followed shortly after, again from a corner, with Tom Walker the scorer.

Burntwood clawed a goal back with the last kick of the first half.

But Richards and Walker each scored again and Brereton could afford the luxury of a missed penalty late in the game.

Cox would consider the Scholars job

by Craig Birch

CHASETOWN caretaker boss Andy Cox today admitted he would "definitely consider" taking the job permanently despite the club's first-ever relegation.

But Cox also conceded he may struggle to devote enough time to the role, the same problem that caused Charlie Blakemore to stand down last October.

Blakemore works as a managing director for an aerospace company while Cox is a software developer and has young twin daughters.

Chris Brindley was surprisingly sacked as manager three days before the Scholars' do-or-die clash at Burscough last Saturday, which ended 4-4.

Frickley's win over Stafford Rangers confirmed the drop – regardless of Northwich's demotion – from the Evo-Stik Northern Premier League.

They now rejoin the Evo-Stik Northern Premier League Division One South from which they were promoted two seasons ago.

And Cox said: "The club needs to decide whether it wants a fresh approach or to tweak it a little bit.

"That's for them to decide. They won't be short of applicants; I believe there's a lot of managers who would see the club as a good project.

"Personally, I think there's enough experience at the club and, if they feel I am the best for the job, I will definitely consider it.

"There are other commitments in my life, as well, I am sure I could find time but it wouldn't be easy to fit everything in.

"All I have said is that I will support whatever decision the board of directors make, 100 per cent. It's important the club make a quick decision, but it's also important the club make the right decision. That's for Chasetown, not Andy Cox."

Cox and the rest of the backroom staff took charge for Saturday's final game of the season against the league's bottom club.

Chasetown were 2-0 down after 22 minutes, but fought back to make it 2-2 at half-time and went in front after the break.

It proved a false dawn – just a minute after Mark Branch's penalty put them in the lead for the first time, it was 3-3 and then 4-3.

Two minutes after Niall Cummins restored Burscough's lead, Gary Birch equalised but it was too little, too late.

UNDERDOGS READY TO BITE BRADFORD

HEDNESFORD manager Rob Smith has warned Bradford Park Avenue "the pressure is all on you" ahead of the two sides' play-off semi-final.

The Pitmen will head to Yorkshire on Saturday, with the winners going on to the Evo-Stik Northern Premier League play-off final on May 5. A place in the Blue Square North is the ultimate prize and would erase the heartache Smith and the club are still suffering from last season.

by Craig Birch

Defeat on penalties to Salisbury at Keys Park in the Zamaretto League play-off final last May, before they switched divisions, still cuts deep.

Smith's men have relinquished home advantage for this game, too, but the manager feels that could actually play into his side's hands.

He said: "Last year won't come into it at all. It's a one-off against Bradford and the pressure is all on them.

"I know we can go to Bradford as underdogs, with our noisy supporters, and enjoy the day."

Great

The Pitmen secured their play-off berth with a goalless draw, albeit uninspiring, against Worksop at Keys Park last Saturday.

Smith said: "The relief in the changing room last weekend was obvious and I am overjoyed with the squad for getting over the line.

"We have limped over the line in the end but, make no mistake, it's a great achievement for the team to finish fifth.

"Our end-of-season form meant we made it hard for ourselves, but that all goes out of the window now."

In a rather uneventful first half, the Pitmen troubled Worksop goalkeeper Mario Ziccardi only once. Chris Clements dispossessed Chris Wood, but saw his shot fizz inches over.

Worksop forced home keeper Dan Crane to block a shot from Ash Burbeary in the opening exchanges.

They then saw consecutive shots from Matt Young and Jamie Jackson roll wide, as they looked to force an opening goal.

The visitors looked more likely to break the deadlock, as the lively Jackson shot wide on the half-hour mark.

Crane palmed away Massiah McDonald's deflected shot just before half-time.

Darren Campion made a rare foray down the left-hand side after the break, forcing Ziccardi into a save at the near post.

With 10 minutes remaining, the Pitmen supporters looked on, conscious that a late mistake could cost their side dearly.

Jermaine Johnson let Jackson squirm clear of the defence with three minutes to go and brought him down for his second bookable offence.

But, from the free-kick, Worksop failed to capitalise on their opportunity against their 10-man hosts.

Bridge of sighs as Hay lose final lead

Bridge 3 Cheslyn Hay Ath 2

IT was a case of lucky 13 for the Bridge as they won silverware on Friday the 13th.

Bridge fought back from two down to beat Cheslyn Hay Athletic 3-2 in the Cannock Chase Division Three cup final.

A brilliant free-kick from man of the match Scott Wallis just before half-time put the Bridge back in the game.

Mikey Colligan levelled on the hour when he buried a far-post header.

And with 14 minutes to play, Bridge completed the comeback when Brett Jenkinson coolly slotted home from the penalty spot.

Guest of honour Steve Theo presented the Gary Theo Memorial Cup, in honour of his brother, to the Bridge in front of a 205-strong crowd.

Hart return to win cup

Cannock & Rugeley 1
White Hart 2
(aet, full-time score 1-1)

AFTER losing in the Bill Davis Cup final last season, White Hart returned to take victory and prevent fourth division champions Cannock & Rugeley recording a double.

Gary Langdon put White Hart in front only for Cannock to level just before half-time.

With no second-half scoring, extra time produced a winner when Adam Green netted with a strike worthy of the occasion.

Joe Woodward was made man of the match. Guest of honour, league vice-chairman Tony Brough, handed over the cup to White Hart in front of a crowd of 204.

TOWN AND COUNTRY DO IT AGAIN!

After our hugely successful Half Price Meat Day on the 4th of April that saw queues forming from 6 am, we are launching another huge promotion.

1p Friday is set to be our biggest and best promotion day so far. On Friday 4th of May we will be offering our customers the chance to pick up a huge selection of different fresh meats for 1p each, by purchasing one of selection of Big Value £9.99 Packs.

We would warn anyone wanting to come and take advantage of this fabulous offer to be as early as you can, as we are expecting to be very busy again with people using this opportunity to fill their freezers for the forthcoming BBQ season.

We at Town & Country Meats realise that things are very hard at the moment, money is tight and price increases are an almost daily occurrence which is why we pride ourselves on offering the very best value meats and groceries to our customers at the very lowest prices we can.

We attribute our ability to be able to supply such a huge range of meats and groceries at such low prices to our massive bulk buying power and our nationwide distribution network. We work very closely with worldwide suppliers to get the best deals on fresh meat and frozen foods to our customers - not only at our Meat Megastore in Fordhouses, but also at our outlet site on Landport Road Industrial Estate off the Bilston Road.

You can get a great deal every day at Town & Country, so there is no need to wait just for our special promotional days. We advertise in the local press every week to keep you all informed of which deals we are running and you can be sure that there are always fabulous deals on offer.

We intend to carry on working very hard within the local community to provide not only great deals but jobs for local people in order to help the economic region we live in improve. As local people ourselves we believe passionately in the West Midlands and if you buy from us you are not only getting a great deal but you will be helping to keep local people working.

We look forward to welcoming you into our store soon and hope that you will
